CONGREGATIONAL singing is known to be one of the most powerful means of awakening the religious emotions of the people, while at the same time doctrinal truths, contained in the hymns, are deeply impressed upon the minds of those who thus proclaim in public their faith and the devout sentiments of their hearts. If people can be got to sing in praise of any project or principle, it is easy to arouse their enthusiasm in its favor. If they sing about anything, it is because they love it. All agree that if Congregational singing were done with spirit it would be a most powerful auxiliary to the priest. It would aid him very much in the work of instruction and exhortation, which, for the want of some such help, he is obliged to supply by extraordinary preaching, numerous instructions, and spiritual conferences.

All, too, have felt the want of such singing at special Lenten services, during retreats and missions, at low masses, and at the meetings of sodalities established in parishes, and in our colleges and convent-schools. The best effort hitherto made has been to have a few hymns suitable for children's use sung by children, to which the older people pay little or no attention.

The present Hymnal, carefully compiled with the aforementioned purposes in view, is offered to the reverend clergy and to superiors of our educational institutions with the confident assurance that it will realize much that has been deemed desirable in a hymn-book for general use.

Having had for several years good opportunities of testing the abilities and tastes of our people in this matter, I have reason to believe that the large majority of the hymns contained in the present collection will be found, on reasonable trial, to be such as the people will learn without difficulty, and will sing with pleasure when assembled in church, and also at home. They will afford to church choral societies serviceable material for practice, and will offer something new for use in our parish schools and Sunday schools, and in our college and convent choirs. In churches, where there are regularly organized surpliced choirs, these hymns will serve for processionals and recessionals, to be sung by the chorus and congregation before and after Mass and Vespers.

THE WORDS.—Hymns have been selected from the works of the best hymn-writers. Some are the compositions of professed non-Catholics, yet contain well-worded expressions of Catholic doctrine, and are full of true religious feeling. Those which are original and also notable additions to selected hymns are copyrighted.

THE TUNES.—All the tunes, being original, are copyrighted, except the melody of the “O filii et filiæ” (Hymn 64) and the Gregorian chants in the second part of the book.

In writing a hymn tune for congregational singing it is most important that the melody be so composed that it shall suit the spirit of the words, and at the same time possess that peculiar character which tends to fix the tune in the memory. In composing the melodies for this work special care has been taken to give this desirable prominence to the principal melody (the treble part) which is the part most of the congregation sing. It is not advisable for any one to attempt to sing any of the other voice-parts except he be a sure reader and practised singer.

All the tunes being set in harmony for four voices, the organist has at hand a good score for his accompaniment, and a large and well-trained chorus sustaining all the parts would give great dignity and force to the general singing of the people.

To secure hearty singing by a congregation there should be a strong-voiced leader, who stands facing the people. For very large congregations a good cornet-player has been found to be a most effective leader of the tune. There should be a good supply of books—not less than one to every five persons. The better the people are supplied with books the quicker and more satisfactory will be the results. Outside of church services the people should be encouraged to work at these hymns at home. The children in the schools should be taught to sing a selection of them appropriate to the passing season or festival; thus laying the foundation for good congregational singing by them in after years.

THE METRES.—The usual method of distinguishing the metres of the hymns has been followed, so that if a change in the tune be desired, other tunes from among those of the same metre may be chosen.

THE GREGORIAN CHANT.—It may be thought by some that the old Gregorian chant notation, printed in the Second Part, will be of very little use to the people of our day. But it was adhered to because these melodies cannot be as well expressed in modern notation, and as a fact the study of Gregorian chant is at the present time reviving all over the Christian world. If chant is to be learned, and its inimitable melodies sung, its notation must be learned.

An English version is given throughout for all the Latin Psalms and Hymns, but, of course, not for singing to the Gregorian melodies, to whose peculiar rhythm our modern languages are wholly unsuited.

It would be too much to hope that a Hymnal of this kind will suit alike all tastes and opinions. If zealous pastors find it useful in furthering the work of Congregational singing in their churches, its highest aim will be realized.

In the same spirit and intent with which the labor of preparing it was undertaken it is now devoutly offered to the honor and glory of God, of his most holy Virgin Mother, and of his glorious Saints.

Lift up the Advent strain.

Hymn I.

S. M.

1. Lift up the Ad - vent strain! Behold, the Lord is nigh! Greet his approach, ye saints, again, With hymns of ho - ly joy. A - men.

2 The everlasting Son
Incarnate deigns to be;
Our God the form of slave puts on,
A race of slaves to free.

3 Daughter of Sion, rise
To meet thy lowly King!
Nor let the faithless heart despise
The peace He comes to bring.

4 As Judge, in clouds of light,
He shall come down again,
And all his scattered saints unite
With Him in heaven to reign.

5 Before that dreadful day
May all our sins be gone,
The old man all be put away,
The new man all put on.

6 Jesu, all praise to Thee,
Our joy and endless rest;
We pray Thee here our guide to be,
Our crown amid the blest. Amen,

Advent.

He is coming, He is coming.

Hymn 2.

87s. Double.

1. He is com-ing, He is com-ing, Not as once He came be-fore,

Wail-ing In-fant, born in weakness On a low-ly sta-ble floor:

But up-on his cloud of glo-ry, In the crim-son-tint-ed sky,

Where we see the gold-en sun-rise In the ros-y distance lie. A-men.

2 He is coming, He is coming,
 Not in pain, and shame, and woe,
 With the thorn-crown on his forehead,
 And the blood-drops trickling slow;
 But with diadem upon Him,
 And the sceptre in his hand,
 And the dead all ranged before Him,
 Raised from death, hell, sea, and land.

3 He is coming, He is coming,
 Not as once He wandered through
 All the hostile land of Judah,
 With his followers poor and few:

But with all the holy angels
 Waiting round his judgment-seat,
 And the chosen twelve Apostles
 Sitting crownèd at his feet.

4 He is coming, He is coming;
 Let his lowly first estate,
 And his tender love, so teach us
 That in faith and hope we wait,
 Till in glory eastward burning,
 Our redemption draweth near;
 And we see the sign in heaven
 Of our Judge and Saviour dear. Amen.

Advent.

Behold, the Bridegroom cometh.

Hymn 3.

14s.

1. Be-hold, the Bridegroom com-eth in the mid-dle of the night,

And blest is he whose loins are girt, whose lamp is burn-ing bright;

But woe to that dull serv-ant, whom his Mas-ter shall sur-prise

With lamp untrimmed, unburning, and with slumber in his eyes. A - men.

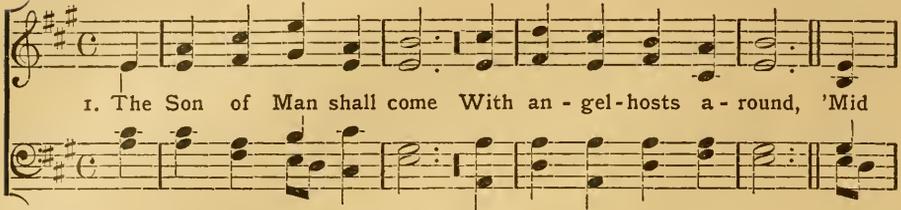

- 2 Do thou, my soul, keep watch, beware lest thou in sleep sink down,
Lest thou be given o'er to death, and lose the golden crown;
But see that thou be sober, with a watchful eye, and thus Cry—Holy, Holy, Holy God, have mercy upon us.
- 3 That day, the day of fear, shall come; my soul, slack not thy toil,
But light thy lamp, and feed it well, and make it bright with oil;
Thou knowest not how soon may sound the cry at eventide,
Behold, the Bridegroom comes. Arise! He comes to meet the Bride.
- 4 Beware, my soul! take thou good heed, lest thou in slumber lie,
And, like the five, remain without, and knock, and vainly cry;
But watch, and bear thy lamp undimmed, and Christ shall gird thee on His own bright wedding-robe of light—the glory of the Son.
- 4 To Thee, O Saviour, now we bring the tribute of our praise,
Too small for Thee, O Bridegroom blest, but all that we can raise:
All praise to Thee, great Three in One, the God Whom we adore,
As was, and is, and shall be done, when time shall be no more. Amen.

Advent.

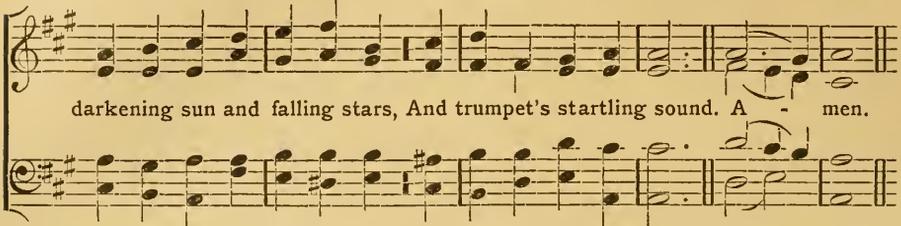

The Son of Man shall come.

Hymn 4.

S. M.

1. The Son of Man shall come With an - gel-hosts a - round, 'Mid darkening sun and falling stars, And trumpet's startling sound. A - men.

2 Awake, ye slumbering souls,
It is no time for rest;
He comes, as comes the lightning flash,
Shining from east to west.

3 Thy servants, Lord, prepare
For that tremendous day;
Fill every heart with watchful care,
And stir us up to pray.

4 Help us to wait the hour,
In toil and holy fear,

When manifested with thy saints
Thou shalt again appear.

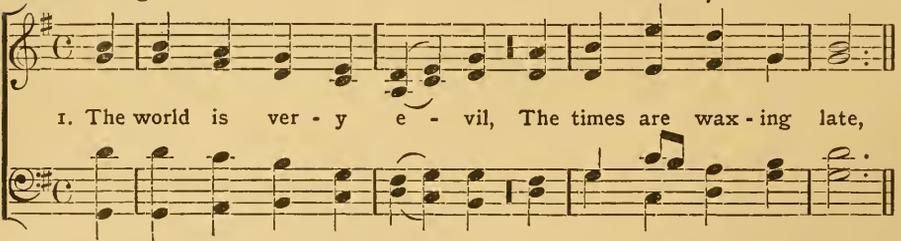

5 Then, when the wailing earth
Thy sign in heaven shall see,
Thou shalt send forth thy angel-band
To gather us to Thee.

6 All praise to Thee, of old
By signs and wonders known,
All praise to Thee, to be revealed
Upon the judgment throne. Amen.

The world is very evil.

Hymn 5.

76s. Double.

1. The world is ver - y e - vil, The times are wax - ing late,
Be so - ber, and keep vig - il; The Judge is at the gate:

Advent.

The Judge that comes in mer - cy, The Judge that comes with might,

To stop the course of e - vil, And re - com-pense the right.

Refrain.

O sweet and bless - ed coun - try, The home of God's e - lect!

O sweet and bless-ed coun-try That ea - ger hearts ex - pect! A - men.

- 2 Arise, arise, ye Christians,
 Let right to wrong succeed;
 Let penitential sorrow
 To heavenly gladness lead;—
 To light that has no evening,
 That knows nor moon nor sun,
 The light so new and golden,
 The light that is but one.
- 3 O home of fadeless splendor,
 Of flowers that hide no thorn,
 Where they shall dwell as children
 Who here as exiles mourn;
 'Midst power that knows no limit,
 Where wisdom has no bound,
 The Beatific Vision
 Shall gladden all around.

- 4 O happy, holy portion,
 Refection for the blest,
 True vision of true beauty,
 True cure of the distrest!
 O strive to win that glory;
 O toil to gain that light;
 Send hope before to grasp it,
 Till hope be lost in sight.
- 5 Where He whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known;
 And they that know and see Him,
 Shall have Him for their own.
 Jesu, in mercy bring us
 To that dear land of rest;
 Who art with God the Father,
 And Spirit, ever blest. Amen.

Advent.

See, He comes.

Hymn 6.

87s. Double.

1. See, He comes! whom every na - tion, Taught of God, de-sired to see;

Fill'd with hope and ex-pec-ta-tion, That He would their Saviour be.

Sing, oh! sing with ex-ul-ta-tion, Haste we to our Father's home; Peace, redemption, joy, sal-va-tion, Now from Heav'n to earth are come. A - men.

Advent.

O come, O come, Emmanuel.

Hymn 7.

8s. Six lines.

1. O come, O come, Em - man - u - el, And ran - som cap - tive

Is - ra - el: That mourns in lone - ly ex - ile here, Until the Son of God ap - pear. Re - joice! re - joice! Em-man - u - el Shall come to thee, O Is - ra - el! A - men.

Refrain.

2 O come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free
Thine own from Satan's tyranny;
From depths of hell thy people save,
And give them victory o'er the grave.

3 O come, Thou Day-spring, come and cheer
Our spirits by thine Advent here;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
And death's dark shadows put to flight.

4 O come, Thou Key of David, come
And open wide our heavenly home;
Make safe the way that leads on high,
And close the path to misery.

5 O come, O come, Thou Lord of Might,
Who to thy tribes, on Sinai's height,
In ancient times didst give the law,
In clouds, and majesty, and awe.

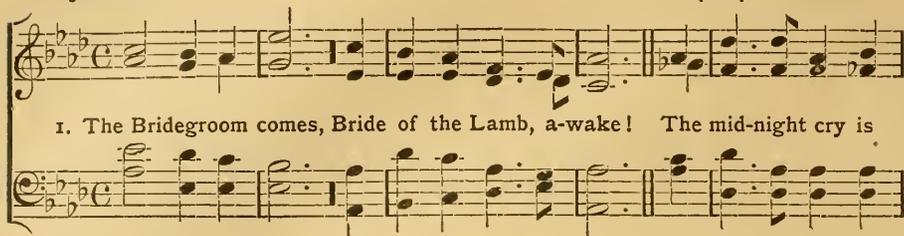

Amen.

Advent.

The Bridegroom comes.

Hymn 8.

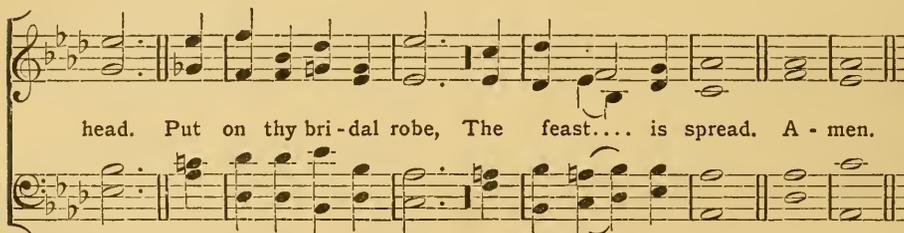

4664. Double.

1. The Bridegroom comes, Bride of the Lamb, a-wake! The mid-night cry is heard, Thy sleep for - sake. The mar-riage day Has come; lift up thy head. Put on thy bri - dal robe, The feast.... is spread. A - men.

2 Shake off earth's dirt,
And wash thy weary feet;
Arise, make haste, go forth!
The Bridegroom greet.

Sing the new song!
Thy triumph has begun;
Thy tears are wiped away,
Thy night is done. Amen.

Christmas Eve.

Wake, awake, for night is flying.

Hymn 9.

1. Wake, a-wake, for night is fly-ing: The watchmen on the heights are crying, Awake, Je - ru - sa - lem, a - rise ! Mid - night's so - lemn hour is toll - ing, His chariot wheels are nearer roll - ing ; He comes ; pre - pare, ye Vir - gins wise. Rise up ; with will - ing feet Go forth, the Bridegroom meet : Al - le - lu - ia ! Bear thro' the night your well - trimmed light, Speed forth to join the mar - riage rite. A - men.

Christmas Eve.

2 Sion hears the watchmen singing,
Her heart with deep delight is springing,
At once she wakes, she hastes away :
Forth her Bridegroom hastens glorious,
In grace arrayed, by truth victorious ;
Her grief is joy, her night is day :
All hail, Incarnate Lord,
Our Crown, and our Reward !
Alleluia !
We haste along, in pomp of song,
And gladsome join the marriage throng.

3 Hear Thy praise, O Lord, ascending
From tongues of men and angels, blending
With harp and lute and psaltery.
By thy pearly gates in wonder
We stand, and swell the voice of thunder,
In bursts of choral melody :
No vision ever brought,
No ear hath ever caught,
Such bliss and joy :
We raise the song, we swell the throng,
To praise Thee ages all along. Amen.

Christmas.

Hark! the hosts of Heaven.

Hymn 10.

87s. Double.

i. Hark! the hosts of heaven are singing Praises to their new - born Lord,

Strains of sweetest mu - sic fling - ing, Not a note or word un - heard :

This the day of days most ho - ly, Day in which new joys are given, Not in part a - lone, but whol - ly, To the wide world under heaven. A - men.

2 On this night, all nights excelling,
God's high praises sounded forth,
While the angels' songs were telling
Of the Lord's mysterious birth :
Thro' the darkness, strangely splendid,
Flashed the light on shepherds' eyes ;
As their lowly flocks they tended,
Came new tidings from the skies.

3 This the burden of the story
Angels told upon that morn,
"God of God, the King of glory
Now of purest Maid is born."
All the hosts of heaven are chanting
Songs with power to stir aud thrill,
And the universe is panting
Joy's deep longings to fulfill.

Christmas.

4 On this day then, through Creation
 Let the glorious hymn ring out;
 Let men hail the great salvation,
 "God with us," with song and shout.
 See the powers of hell are broken,
 Fierce, and tyrannous and wild,
 And on earth glad words are spoken,
 Heralding the new-born Child.

5 Christ who framed the earth and heaven,—
 Such the Word's creative power,—
 Who alone the law hath given
 That upholds them hour by hour:
 Grant to us of his great pity
 Pardon for our guilt and sin;
 Grant us in the heavenly city
 Peace and rest and life to win. Amen.

God from on high hath heard.

Hymn II.

6s.

1. God from on high hath heard; Let sighs and sorrows cease; Lo, from the opening Heaven..... De - scends the prom-ised peace! A - men.

2 Hark, through the silent night
 Angelic voices swell:
 The hosts of heaven proclaim
 God, born on earth to dwell.

3 Now with the shepherd band
 Speed on with eager feet:
 Come seek the hallowed cave
 The holy Babe to greet.

4 But O, what sight appears
 Within the lowly door!
 Behold a manger rude,
 A Child and Mother poor.

5 Art Thou the Christ, the Son,
 Of Light the very Light,
 Who holdest in thine Hand
 Earth and the starry height?

6 Yea, faith can pierce the cloud
 Which veils thy glory now;
 And hail Thee God and Lord,
 To Whom all creatures bow.

7 Faith sees the sapphire throne,
 Where angels evermore
 Adoring tremble still,
 And trembling still adore.

8 Jesu, thy silence speaks,
 And bids us not refuse
 To bear what flesh would shun,
 To spurn what flesh would choose.

9 Once born within us, Lord,
 By that pure love of thine,
 Keep Thou each contrite heart
 Thy cradle and thy shrine. Amen.

Christmas.

While this low earth.

Hymn 12.

99 12 99 12.

1. While this low earth was filled with sadness, All heaven was ju - bi - lant with glad-ness, As broke the joy - ous Christmas morn - ing long a - go;

When Christ was born for our sal - va - tion, The long De - sired of ev - ery nation, Who came to save, and heal the world from every woe. A - - men.

2 Behold He comes, our Saviour holy,
Our God an Infant, meek and lowly,
Of all creation He the only Lord and King.
Do ye not hear the angels singing
All joy from heaven to earth now bringing?
O faithful Christians, lift your voices too, and sing!

3 On bended knee let all adore Him;
Our heart's best love now lay before Him,
As in His Virgin mother's arms He sweetly lies.
With angels let all join in chorus,
With thousands that have sung before us,
And now are singing songs of rapture in the skies.

Christmas.

4 With alleluias, Lord, we greet Thee ;
 With laurel wreaths of victory meet Thee,
 And give Thee " Welcome ! " at this happy Christmas-tide.
 With Thee comes every joy and blessing,
 To all Thy Sacred Name professing,
 Who in thy Holy Church in faith and love abide. Amen.

Hark, the heaven's sweet melody.

Hymn 13.

75s. 85.

1. Hark! the heaven's sweet mel - o - dy . Ech - oes now on earth,

And the bands of those on high Sing the Vir - gin - Birth ;

What mean ye, O ye pass-ers - by, Share ye not their mirth? A - men.

2 Shepherds watch their flocks by night ;
 Angel notes they hear ;
 Songs of glory in the height,
 Peace and love brought near :
 To us they sing, thro' Love's dear might ;
 Praise to Christ they bear.

3 Those high gifts to none belong
 But the good and true,
 Falling not on sinful throng,
 But the faithful few :
 When we against the foe are strong,
 Then is peace in view.

4 Earthly things with heaven are blent,
 Twofold is the praise ;
 Yet each word divinely sent

Hidden depths displays ;
 On Christ, the Word made Flesh, intent,
 Men, your anthems raise.

5 Of his Birth the bright stars tell,
 Pouring floods of light ;
 Shepherds seek out Bethlehem's cell,
 All those stars in sight ;
 They find the King of Heaven where
 Ox and ass of right. [dwell

6 There, within the manger laid,
 They their Lord descry :
 We that Child of Mother-maid
 Sing with praises high ;
 With homage, Lord, thus duly paid
 We to Thee draw nigh. Amen.

Christmas.

Christians, awake!

Hymn 14.

10s. Six lines.

1. Christians, a-wake! sa-lute the hap-py morn, Where-on the Sav-iour of mankind was born; Rise to a-dore the mys-te-ry of love,

Which hosts of an-gels chanted from above; With them the joyful tidings first begun Of God In-car-nate, of the Virgin's Son. A - - men.

2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice, "Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth:
This day hath God fulfilled his promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord."

3 He spake; and straightway the celestial choir,
In hymns of joy unknown before, conspire:
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with alleluias rang:
Let God's high praise resound in heaven above:
Throughout the earth to men be peace and love.

Christmas.

4 To Bethlehem straight the enlightened shepherds ran,
 To see the wonders God had wrought for man:
 Then to their flocks, still praising God, return,
 And their glad hearts with holy rapture burn:
 To all the joyful tidings they proclaim,
 These first apostles of the Saviour's Name.

5 Oh! may we keep and ponder in our mind
 God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind;
 Trace we the Babe, Who hath retrieved our loss,
 From the poor manger to the bitter cross;
 Tread in his steps, assisted by his grace,
 Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.

6 Then may we hope, the angelic hosts among,
 To join, redeemed, a glad triumphant throng.
 He that was born upon this joyful day
 Around us all his glory shall display;
 Saved by his love, incessant we shall sing
 Eternal praise to heaven's Almighty King. Amen.

The Virgin Mary hath conceived.

Hymn 15.

L. M.

1. The Vir-gin Ma-ry hath conceived, By that true word which she believed; And Whom the wide world cannot hold, A spot-less maiden's arms en-fold. A - men.

2 Now buds the flower of Jesse's root;
 Now Aaran's rod puts out its fruit;
 She sees her offspring rise to view,
 The Mother, yet the Virgin too.

4 Now light is come, salvation shewn,
 And night repelled, and death o'erthrown;
 Approach, ye nations! own this morn,
 That God of Mary hath been born.

3 He, by whose hand the light was made,
 Deigns in a manger to be laid;
 He with his Father made the skies,
 Now as an infant swaddled lies.

5 All honor, laud, and glory be,
 O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee!
 All glory, as is ever meet
 To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

Christmas.

'Twas in the winter cold.

Hymn 16.

C. M. Double.

i. 'Twas in the win - ter cold, when earth was des - o - late and wild, That an - gels wel - comed at his birth The Ev - er - last - ing Child.
From realms of ev - er - brightening day, And from his throne a - bove, He came, with hu - man kind to stay, All low - li - ness and love. A - men.

- 2 Then in the manger the poor beast
Was present with his Lord;
Then swains and pilgrims from the East
Saw, wondered and adored.
And I this morn would come with them
This blessed sight to see,
And to the Babe of Bethlehem
Bend low the reverent knee.
- 3 But I have not, it makes me sigh,
One offering in my power;
'Tis winter all with me, and I
Have neither fruit nor flower.
O God, O Brother, let me give
My worthless self to Thee;
And that the years which I may live
May pure and spotless be:

- 4 Grant me Thyself, O Saviour kind,
The Spirit undefiled,
That I may be in heart and mind
As gentle as a child;
That I may tread life's arduous ways
As Thou Thyself hast trod,
And in the night of prayer and praise
Keep ever close to God.
- 5 Light of the everlasting morn,
Deep through my spirit shine;
There let thy presence newly born
Make all my being thine:
There try me as the silver, try
And cleanse my soul with care,
Till Thou art able to descry
Thy faultless image there. Amen.

Christmas.

O lovely voices of the sky.

Hymn 17.

86s. 6s.

1. O love - ly voi - ces of the sky! That hymned the Saviour's birth,

Are ye not sing - ing still on high Who once sang "Peace on earth?" Still o'er us float those strains Wherewith, in days gone by, Ye blessed the Syrian swains— O voi - ces of the sky! O voi - ces of the sky! A - men.

2 O clear and shining light! whose beams
A heavenly radiance shed
Around the palms and o'er the streams,
And on the shepherds' head,
Be near through life and death,
As in that holiest night
Of hope, and joy, and faith—
O clear and shining light!

3 O star which led to Him, whose love
Brought down man's ransom free!
Thou still art 'midst the hosts above;
We still may gaze on thee.
Thy light doth never set;
Thy rays earth may not dim,
Send them to guide us yet,
O star which led to Him!

Christmas.

To Him, God's only Son.

Hymn 18.

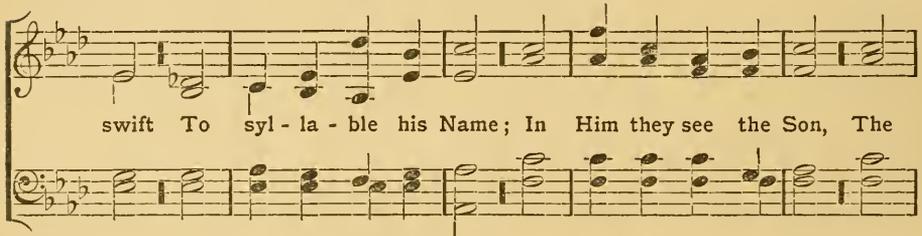

6s. Nine lines.

1. To Him, God's on - ly Son, God's ar - mies all up - lift Their voices, and pro - claim His praise in u - ni - son! Those heavenly Hosts are swift To syl - la - ble his Name; In Him they see the Son, The Heaven - ly Fa - ther's Gift, From Love, for love who came. A - men.

2 This is the hallowed day,
And who shall tell its worth?
This day doth Hell destroy,
And death for ever slay!
This gives the world new-birth,
Gladness without alloy!
This night, far, far away,
There rang through utmost earth,
The angels' song of joy!

3 It was at deep midnight,
And shepherds watched the fold:
Sudden there flashed around
The glorious heavenly light!
Along the lonely wild
They heard a weird-like sound;
It spake the Godhead's might;
The Virgin-born it told,
Before all ages found!

Christmas.

4 Glory to God on high,
 And on the earth be rest,
 And peace from heaven to men!
 This was the thrilling cry;
 The Father's high behest
 The angels echoed then!
 Of One born wondrously
 Of Virgin, ever-blest,
 The Son, they sang again.

5 While thus with joyous song,
 Which tens of thousands gave,
 The heaven's high vaults resound,
 Can man be silent long,
 New ransomed from the grave,

So long in fetters bound?
 No! let him swell the throng
 Of triumph, now no slave,
 For he hath freedom found!

6 Passed is the tyrant's hour—
 His banner stained and torn;
 Crushed lies our deadliest foe!
 No more dark tempests lour:
 The Prince of Peace this morn
 The path of peace doth show!
 Thou, Whose sustaining power
 Creation hath upborne,
 Grant us no sin to know!

Amen.

From lands that see the sun arise.

Hymn 19.

C. M.

1. From lands that see the sun a-rise To earth's remot-est shore, Let every tongue give praise to Him, Whom Blessed Ma-ry bore. A - men.

2 He comes, the world's Blest Maker, He,
 In servile guise arrayed,
 In Flesh our sin-bound flesh to free,
 To save the souls He made.

3 A spotless Maiden bears the Babe
 Foretold by Gabriel's word;
 She carries on her virgin breast
 Her Saviour and her Lord.

4 A manger scantly strewn with hay
 Becomes the Eternal's bed;
 And He, Who feeds each smallest bird,
 Himself with milk is fed.

5 The hosts of heaven his birthday keep,
 The angels round Him sing;
 And shepherds hasten to adore
 Their Shepherd and their King.

6 Praise to the Father; praise to Thee,
 The Virgin's Holy Son;
 Praise to the Holy Paraclete,
 While endless ages run. Amen.

Christmas.

Born of God the Father's bosom.

Hymn 20.

87s.8777.

i. Born of God the Father's bo-som, Ere the worlds to light had come, Al-pha sur-named and O-me-ga, He a-lone the source and sum Of all things that are, or have been, Or here-aft-er shall find room, Or here-aft-er shall find room, Ev-er, and for ev-er-more. A-men.

- 2 This is He Whom Heaven-taught sages
Hymned of yore with one accord;
Pledged to man in faithful pages
Of the prophet's sure strong word.
As foreshewn, his Star is gleaming;
Now let all things praise the Lord,
Now let all things praise the Lord,
Ever, and for evermore.
- 3 O that pure and blessed dawning,
When th' unspotted Mother bright,
By the Holy Ghost made fruitful,
Our salvation brought to light,
And the Child, the world's Redeemer,
Shew'd his sacred face in sight,
Shew'd his sacred face in sight,
Ever, and for evermore.

Christmas.

4 Let Heaven's height sing Psalms ador-
 Psalms let all the angels sing ; [ing,
 Powers and Virtues wheresoever
 Praise with Psalms our God and King :
 None of all our tongues be silent,
 Mightily all voices sing,
 Mightily all voices sing,
 Ever, and for evermore.

5 Thee let aged men and youthful,
 Boys in choral brotherhood,
 Mothers, virgins, simple maidens,
 One adoring multitude,

Hymn aloud in tones harmonious,
 Of devoutest, purest mood,
 Of devoutest, purest mood,
 Ever, and for evermore.

5 Christ, to Thee, with God the Father,
 And the Holy Spirit, be Praise unwearied, high thanksgiving,
 Song, and perfect melody.
 Honor, virtue, might victorious,
 And to reign eternally,
 And to reign eternally,
 Ever, and for evermore. Amen.

Jesu, Redeemer of the world.

Hymn 21.

L. M.

1. Je - su, Re-deem-er of the world, Who, ere the earliest dawn of light, Wast from e - ter - nal a - ges born, Im-mense in glo-ry as in might ; A - men.

2 Unfailing Hope of all mankind,
 In Whom the Father's Face we see ;
 O hear the prayers thy people pour,
 This day throughout the world to Thee.

3 Remember, Thou, Who all hast made,
 How in the Holy Virgin's womb
 Thou for thy fallen creatures' sake
 Didst our humanity assume.

4 From year to year this festal day
 Its witness bears, that all alone,
 From thine own Father's bosom forth,
 To save the world Thou camest down.

5 O Day, to which the seas and sky,
 And earth and heaven, glad welcome
 sing ;
 O day, which healed our misery,
 And brought to earth salvation's King.

6 We too, O Lord, who have been cleansed
 In thine own fount of Blood Divine,
 Will join our tribute of sweet song,
 On this blest Natal Day of thine.

7 O Jesu, born of Virgin pure,
 Immortal glory be to Thee.
 Whom with the Father we adore,
 And Holy Ghost eternally. Amen.

O come, new anthems let us sing.

Hymn 22.

8s. Six lines.

2 No touch impure,—no taint of earth
Mars there the high and heavenly Birth;
There she, the Mother meek and mild,
Tho' maiden pure, brings forth her Child:
There to her loving heart is pressed
The Word made Flesh, the Ever-Blest.

3 O wondrous Birth, O heavenly Word
Of God begotten, Lord of Lord!
O awful Babe, O glorious Child,
Man's nature bearing undefiled,
In Whom, thus veiled from mortal eye,
We own Incarnate Deity!

Christmas.

4 So of thy coming sages old,
 Taught by thy Spirit, Lord, foretold;
 So at thy birth men sing thy praise,
 And songs of peace the angels raise,
 And all creation lifts its chant,
 And all the saints are jubilant.

5 Hail then, O Lord! incline thine ear,
 And these our prayers and praises hear,
 Thou Who art known in Persons Three,
 Thrice blest, thrice holy Trinity,
 The God Whom heaven and earth adore,
 One, and One only, evermore. Amen.

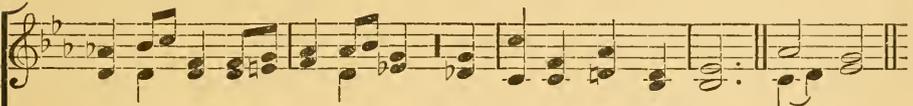

While shepherds watched their flocks.

Hymn 23.

C. M.

1. While shepherds watched their flocks by night, All seat-ed on the ground, The an - gel of the Lord came down, And glo-ry shone a - round. A - men.

2 "Fear not," he said, for mighty dread
 Had seized their troubled mind,
 "Glad tidings of great joy I bring
 To you and all mankind.

4 "The Heavenly Babe you there shall find
 To human view displayed,
 All meanly wrapped in swathing-bands,
 And in a manger laid."

3 "To you, in David's town, this day,
 Is born of David's line
 The Saviour, Who is Christ the Lord,
 And this shall be the sign :

5 Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
 Appeared a shining throng
 Of angels, praising God, who thus Addressed their joyful song :

6 "All glory be to God on high,
 And in the earth be peace,
 And joy henceforth from heaven to men
 Begin, and never cease!" Amen.

Come and worship, come and worship, Worship Christ, the new-born King! Angels from the realms of glo - ry Worship Christ, the new-born King! A - men.

2 Shepherds in the field abiding,
 Watching o'er your flocks by night,
 God with man is now residing,
 Yonder shines the heavenly Light.
 Come and worship, come and worship,
 Worship Christ, the new-born King!
 Shepherds in the field abiding,
 Worship Christ, the new-born King!

3 Saints, before the altar bending,
 Watching long in hope and fear,
 Suddenly the Lord, descending,
 In his temple shall appear.

Come and worship, come and worship,
 Worship Christ, the new-born King!
 Saints, before the altar bending,
 Worship Christ, the new-born King!

4 Saints and angels join in praising
 Thee, the Father, Spirit, Son:
 Evermore their voices raising
 To th' Eternal Three in One.
 Come and worship, come and worship,

 Saints and angels join in praising,

Earth shall then her fruits afford;

Hymn 26.

Lo! the pilgrim Magi.

65s. Double.

1. Lo, the pil - grim Ma - gi Leave their roy - al .halls, And with ea - ger footsteps Speed to Bethlehem's walls; As they onward journey, Faith, which firmly rests Upon Hope unswerving, Triumphs in their breasts. A - men.

- 2 Oh, what joy ecstatic
Thrilled each heart from far,
When, to guide their footsteps,
Gleamed that Beacon-Star;
O'er that home so holy,
Pouring down its ray,
Where the cradled Infant
With his Mother lay.
- 3 Costly pomp and pageant
Earthly kings array;
He, a mightier Monarch,
Hath a nobler sway;
Straw may be his pallet,
Mean his garb may be,
Yet with power transcendent,
He all hearts can free.
- 4 At his crib they worship,
Prostrate on the floor;
And their God, there present,
In that Babe adore:

- Let us to that Infant,
As their offspring true,
Hearts with faith o'erflowing
Give, our tribute due;—
- 5 Holiest Love presenting,
As gold to our King;
To the Man pure bodies,
Myrrh-like, chastely bring;
Unto Him, as incense,
Vow and prayer address;
So, with meepest off'rings
Him our God confess.
- 6 Glory to the Father,
Fount of Light alone;
Who unto the Gentiles
Made his glory known.
Equal praise and glory,
Blessèd Son, to Thee,
And to Thee, Sweet Spirit,
Evermore shall be. Amen.

2 Alleluia! Joyful Mother,
True Jerusalem and free,
Alleluia now triumphant
All thy children sing in Thee;
But by Babylon's sad waters
Mourning exiles still are we.

3 Alleluia cannot always
Be our song while here below;
Alleluia our transgressions
Make us for a while forego;
For the Lenten-time is coming,
When our tears for sin must flow.

4 Wherefore in our hymns we pray Thee,
Blessed, Holy Trinity!
Grant us all to keep thine Easter
In our Home beyond the sky,
There to Thee our Alleluia
Singing everlastingly. Amen.

Septuagesima.

Hymn 28.

Septuagesima.

2 Alleluia, thou resoundest,
Salem, Mother of the blest ;
Alleluias without ending
Fit yon gladsome place of rest ;
Exiles we by Babel's waters
Sit in bondage sore distressed,
When the Paschal joy beginneth
Thou again shalt be our guest.

3 Alleluia we deserve not Here to chant for evermore ;
Alleluias our transgressions
Make us for a while give o'er ;

For the holy time is coming,
Bidding us our sins deplore ;
Penance done, thy voice, returning,
Sounds more welcome than before.

4 Trinity of endless glory,
Hear thy people as they cry ;
Grant us all to keep thine Easter
In our Home beyond the sky ;
There to Thee our Alleluia
Singing everlastingly ;
Alleluia ! Alleluia !
Singing everlastingly. Amen.

Christian, seek not yet repose.

Hymn 29.

777 3.

1. Chris-tian, seek not yet re - pose, Cast thy dreams of ease a - way ;

Thou art in the midst of foes : Watch and pray. A - - men.

2 Principalities and powers,
Mustering their unseen array,
Wait for thine unguarded hours ;
Watch and pray.

3 Gird thy heavenly armor on,
Wear it ever night and day ;
Ambushed lies the evil one :
Watch and pray.

4 Hear the victors who o'ercame ;
Still they mark each warrior's way ;
All with warning voice exclaim,—
Watch and pray.

5 Hear, above all, hear thy Lord ;
Him thou lovest to obey ;
Hide within thy heart his word,—
Watch and pray.

6 Watch, as if on that alone
Hung the issue of the day ;
Pray that help may be sent down ;
Watch and pray. Amen.

Lord of the hearts of men.

Hymn 30.

S. M.

i. Lord of the hearts of men, Thou hast vouchsafed to bless, From age to age thy chosen saints With fruits of ho - li - ness. A - men.

2 Here Faith and Hope and Love
Reign in sweet bond allied ;
There, when this little day is o'er,
Shall Love alone abide.

3 O Love, O Truth, O Light !
Light never to decay !
O rest from thousand labors past !
O endless Sabbath-day !

4 Here, bearing the good seed,
'Mid cares and tears we come ;

There, with rejoicing hearts, we bear
Our harvest-burdens home.

5 O give us, mighty Lord,
The fruits Thyself dost love ;
Soon shalt Thou from thy judgment-seat
Crown thine own gifts above.

6 From all the heavenly host,
And all on earth below,
To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
Let endless praises flow. Amen.

2 Of the hour that comes to sever
Thee, O man, and earth for ever,
We will speak, and thou shalt learn:
Working final separation,
Changing kindred and relation,
For the ashes and the urn.

3 Grace repelled and life expended,
Harvest past and summer ended,
Whither shall the sinner turn?
Righteous meed and final sentence,
Vain resolve and late repentance,
Sadly, sadly shall discern.

4 Wherefore, man, while yet thou mayest,
If thou fastest, if thou prayest,
Earthly care and pleasure spurn:
Dreams that cannot last despising,
And with Christ from death uprising,
Thou of heavenly joy shalt learn. Amen.

In thy coming, in thy going,
Keep the Cross within thy heart.
Whether pain or solace knowing,
Keep the Cross within thy heart.

3 'Tis the Cross in every anguish,
Makes the broken spirit whole,
When 'midst cruel foes thou languish,
Seek this refuge for thy soul.
In the Cross, with burdens aching,
Seek this refuge for thy soul.
Heaviest waves above thee breaking,
Seek this refuge for thy soul.

 Here we fall before thy Cross;
 Through thy death our life restoring,
 It has saved the world from loss.
 Tell abroad the wondrous story,
 It has saved the world from loss,
 In the holy sign we glory,
 Chant the triumph of the Cross!

Now are the days of humblest prayer.

Hymn 33.

1. Now are the days of humblest prayer, When consciences to God lie bare, And mer-cy most de-lights to spare. O hearken when we cry, Chastise us with thy fear; Yet, Fa-ther, in the mul-ti-tude Of thy compassions, hear! A-men.

2 Now is the season, wisely long,
 Of sadder thought, and graver song,
 When ailing souls grow well and strong.

5 We, who have loved the world, must learn
 Upon that world our backs to turn,
 And with the love of God to burn.

3 The feast of penance! O! so bright,
 With true conversion's heavenly light,
 Like sunrise after stormy night!

6 Full long in sin's dark ways we went,
 Yet now our steps are heavenward bent,
 And grace is plentiful in Lent.

4 O happy time of blessed tears,
 Of surer hopes, of chastening fears,
 Undoing all our evil years.

7 This load of sins within my breast,
 With contrite tears shall be confessed,
 Grant pardon then, Redeemer blest!

Lent.

Lord, our strength and righteousness.

Hymn 34.

7s. Six lines.

1. Lord, our strength and righteousness, Hear us from thy loft - y Throne.

Je - su, ref - uge in dis - tress, Soft - en Thou each heart of stone :

Stone to flesh, O God, con - vert ; Look, and break the hardened heart.

Stone to flesh, O God, convert ; Look, and break the hardened heart. A - men.

2 All our inmost sins reveal
By thy Spirit ; all reprove ;
Make us see and sadly feel
Sins against thy light and love :
Sins that crucified our God,
Trampling on his precious Blood.

3 Jesu, see thy wandering sheep ;
Make us restless to return :
Bid us look on Thee and weep,
Bitterly as Peter mourn :
By thy Bloody Sweat, we pray,
Wash our every sin away.

Lent.

4 Let us in thy sight appear
As the publican distressed;
Come, not daring to draw near,
Smite on the unworthy breast;
Groan the sinner's only plea,—
God be merciful to me.

5 Oh, that we in Mary's place
To thy presence might draw nigh;
Fearing to look on thy face,
Kneeling there with downcast eye,
Might the solemn task repeat,
Weep, and wash, and kiss thy feet.

6 Let thy Spirit shed abroad
In our hearts, O Love divine,
Love, the perfect love of God;
Make and keep us only Thine:
And from sin for ever free
Give us, Jesus, rest in Thee. Amen.

Thou loving Maker of mankind.

Hymn 35.

L. M.

1. Thou lov - ing Mak - er of man - kind,.. Be - fore thy throne we pray, we weep; Oh! strengthen us with grace di - vine,.. Du - ly this sa - cred time to keep! A - men.

2 Great Judge of hearts, thou dost discern
Our ills, and all our weakness know;
Again to Thee with tears we turn,
Again to us thy mercy show.

3 Much have we sinned; but we confess
Our guilt, and all our faults deplore:
Oh! for the praise of thy great Name,
Our fainting souls to health restore.

4 And grant us, while by fasts we strive
This mortal body to control,
To fast from all the food of sin,
And so to purify the soul.

5 Hear us, O Trinity thrice blest!
Sole Unity, to Thee we cry;
Vouchsafe us from these fasts below
To reap immortal fruit on high.

Come, let us sit and weep.

Hymn 36.

668 10.

1. Come, let us sit and weep, And fill our hearts with woe, And view the shame and torments deep, Which God from wicked men did undergo. A - men.

2 See how the multitude,
With swords and staves, draw nigh;
See how they smite, with buffets rude,
The Head divine of awful Majesty:

3 How, bound with cruel cord,
Christ to the scourge is given;
And ruffians lift their hands, unawed,

At this: our sin it was [deep:
That wrought in Thee those torments
Of thy most bitter Death we are the cause.

7 To Him who so much loved
To gain for sinners grace,

When I survey the wondrous Cross.

Hymn 37.

L. M.

1. When I sur-vey the wondrous Cross On which the Prince of Glory died, My richest gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride. A - men.

Lent.

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast
Save in the Cross of Christ, my God ;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his Blood !

3 See, from his Head, his Hands, his Feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingling down ;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown ?

4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small ;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my life, my soul, my all.

5 To Christ, who won for sinners grace
By bitter grief and anguish sore,
Be praise from all the ransomed race
For ever and for evermore. Amen.

O Love Divine.

Hymn 38.

8s. Six lines.

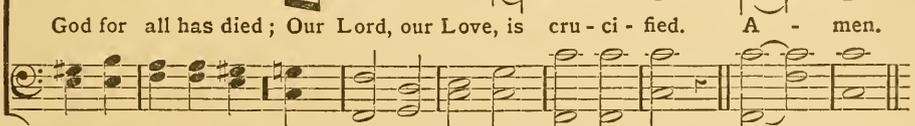

1. O Love Divine, what hast Thou done ? Th' Incarnate God hath died for us : The Father's co - e - ter-nal Son Bore all our sins up - on the Cross : Th' In-carnate

God for all has died ; Our Lord, our Love, is cru - ci - fied. A - men.

2 Behold Him, all ye passers by,
The Lamb of God, the Life divine !
Come, sinners, see your Maker die ;
He cries—was ever grief like mine ?
The Lord of life for all has died ;
Our Lord, our Love, is crucified.

3 See there ! His Head is crowned with thorn ! [wide !
His bleeding Hands are outstretched
His streaming Feet are fixed and torn !
The Fountain gushes from his Side !
For all flows pardon in that tide ;
Our Lord, our Love, is crucified.

4 O wondrous sight ! that should convert
The hardest heart that ever beat ;
Behold ! O sinful man, the hurt
Your crimes have wrought on One so sweet.

Yet for your pardon He has died ;
Our Lord, our Love, is crucified.

5 Come, let us kneel beneath his Cross,
And gladly catch the healing stream ;
All things for Him account but loss,
And give up all our hearts to Him ;
Of nothing speak or think beside ;
Our Lord, our Love, is crucified. Amen.

3 O love that passeth knowledge
So patiently to wait!
O sin that hath no equal
So fast to bar the gate!

In accents meek and low,
"I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat Me so?"

We open now the door:
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,

Slain for my soul.

Hymn 41.

105.

1. Slain for my soul, for all my sins defamed, King, crowned with thorns, with blasphemies proclaimed, High o'er the clouds, thy roy-al Sign I see:

Throned in thy glo-ry, Lord, re-mem-ber me. A-men.

"Father, forgive, they know not what they do."
When they that pierced, when every eye, shall see
Thee in thy Kingdom, Lord, remember me.

Think of me in thy crowning of the blest;
Confessed, besought, and worshipped on the Tree,
Lord, in thy Kingdom still remember me.
- 4 'Mid all the thronging of thy ransomed dead,
With all the Book of Life before Thee spread:
Tost, like a wave, upon the living sea
By angels parted, Lord, remember me.

Thy Paradise, and Paradise with Thee;
There while I rest, from death, from sorrow free,
Forever, Lord, Thou wilt remember me. Amen.

O World! behold upon the Tree.

Hymn 42.

8s. Six lines.

1. O world! behold up - on the Tree Thy Life is hang-ing now for thee;

Thy Saviour yields his dying breath. The mighty Prince of glo-ry now For thee doth un-re-sist-ing bow To cruel stripes, to scorn and death. A - men.

2 Alas! my Saviour, who could dare
Bid Thee such bitter anguish bear?
What evil heart ill-treat Thee thus!
For Thou art good, hast wrongèd none,
As we and ours too oft have done;

Thou hast not sinned, dear Lord, like us.

3 My grievous sins, that number more
Than yonder sands upon the shore,
Have brought to pass this agony:
'Tis I have caused the floods of woe,
That now thy Soul in death o'erflow,
And those sad hearts that watch by Thee.

4 'Tis I to whom these pains belong;
'Tis I should suffer for my wrong,
Bound hand and foot in heavy chains:
Thy scourge, thy fetters, whatsoever
Thou bearest, 'tis my soul should bear,
For I have well deserved such pains.

5 Lord, from thy Sorrows I will learn
How fiercely wrath divine doth burn,
How terribly its thunders roll;
How sorely this our loving God
Can smite with his avenging rod;
How deep his floods o'erwhelm the soul.

6 And I will nail me to thy cross,
And learn to count all things but dross,
Wherein the flesh doth pleasure take;
Whate'er is hateful in thine eyes,
With all the strength that in me lies,
Will I cast from me and forsake.

7 Thy heavy groans, thy bitter sighs,
The tears that from thy dying eyes
Were shed when Thou wast sore oppressed,

Myself on Thee I wholly cast,
And enter with Thee into rest.

What a sea of tears and sorrow.

Hymn 44.

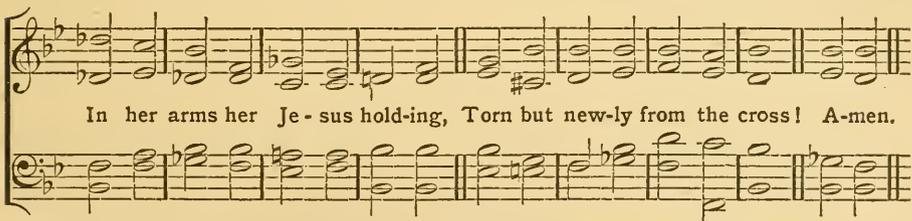

87s. Six lines.

1. What a sea of tears and sorrows Did the soul of Ma-ry toss.

To and fro up - on its bil - lows, While she wept her bit - ter loss ;

In her arms her Je - sus hold - ing, Torn but new - ly from the cross ! A - men.

2 O! that mournful Virgin Mother!
See her tears how fast they flow
Down upon his mangled Body,
Wounded Side, and thorny Brow;
While his Hands and Feet she kisses—
Picture of immortal woe—

3 Oft and oft his Arms and Bosom
Fondly straining to her own;
Oft her pallid lips imprinting
On each wound of her dear Son;
Till at last, in swoons of anguish,
Sense and consciousness are gone.

4 Gentle Mother, we beseech thee,
By thy tears and trouble sore,
By the death of thy dear Offspring,
By the bloody wounds He bore,
Touch our hearts with that true sorrow
Which afflicted thee of yore.

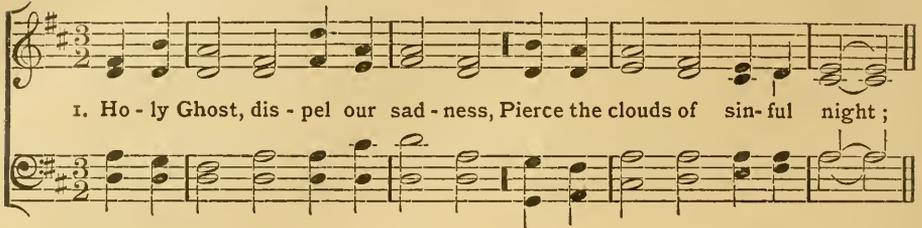

5 To the Father everlasting,
And the Son who reigns on high,
With the co-eternal Spirit,
Trinity in Unity,
Be salvation, honor, blessing,
Now and through eternity. Amen.

Holy Ghost, dispel our sadness.

Hymn 45.

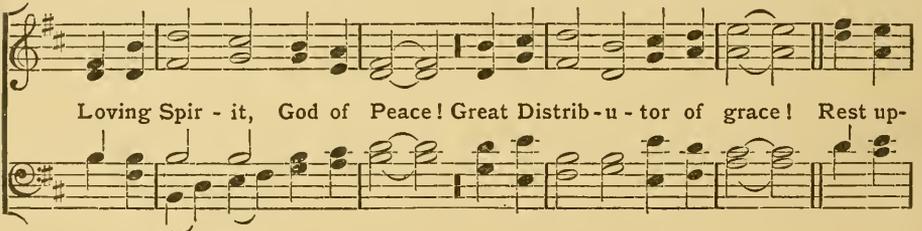

87s.77 88.

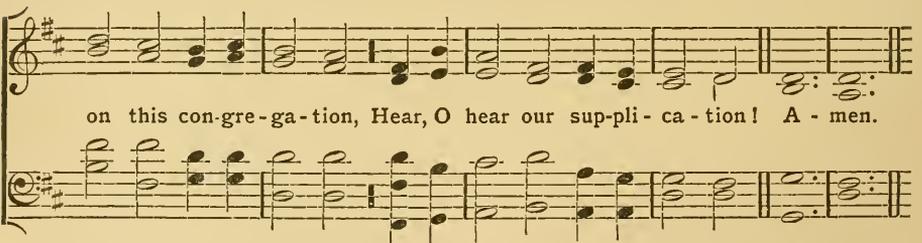

1. Ho - ly Ghost, dis - pel our sad - ness, Pierce the clouds of sin - ful night ;

Come, Thou source of sweetest gladness, Breathe thy Life, and spread thy Light !

Loving Spir - it, God of Peace ! Great Distrib - u - tor of grace ! Rest up - on this con - gre - ga - tion, Hear, O hear our sup - pli - ca - tion ! A - men.

2 From that height which knows no measure,
As a gracious shower descend, [ure,
Bringing down the richest treasure
Men can wish, or God can send !
O thou Glory, shining down
From the Father and the Son,
Grant us thy illumination !
Rest upon this congregation !

3 Come to every heart awaiting Thee the Comfort from above,
Every mind illuminating,
Till we learn thy law of love.
Old and young with power inspire,
Give us hearts and tongues of fire !
Rest upon this congregation,
Hear, O hear our supplication.

Lent.

4 Let thy truth, the earth renewing,
 Spread abroad its peaceful sway;
 Error's power and sin subduing—
 Hasten, Lord, the promised day!
 Holy Spirit, in each breast,
 Grant thy peace may ever rest!
 Grant us thy illumination!
 Rest upon this congregation!

5 Now thy quickening influence bringing,
 We thy gracious power will prove;
 Heavenward lift our hearts while singing
 Words of prayer, and praise, and love.
 Give to Thee, as doth belong,
 Worship worthy of the song;
 Rest upon this congregation!
 Hear, O hear our supplication! Amen.

Now, my soul, thy voice upraising.

Hymn 46.

87s. Six lines.

1. Now, my soul, thy voice up-raising, Sing in sweet and mournful strain,

Of the grief and wounds and sorrow, And the agonizing pain, Which Christ

Je-sus, sin-less Vic-tim, Free-ly bore, for sinners slain. A-men.

2 Scourged by man with ruthless fury,
 Ransom for our sins to pay,
 By each livid stripe He heals us,
 Raises those who wounded lay,
 Gently soothes our sores and bruises,
 And removes our pain away.

3 He to freedom hath restored us,
 By the very bonds He bare;
 And his sacred wounds afford us
 Each a stream of mercy rare.
 Pierced by the nails, He nails us
 To the Cross, and keeps us there.

4 See! the spear his Side is piercing,
 Though his foes have seen Him die;
 Blood and Water thence are flowing
 In a stream of mystery:
 Water, from our guilt to cleanse us;
 Blood, to buy us crowns on high.

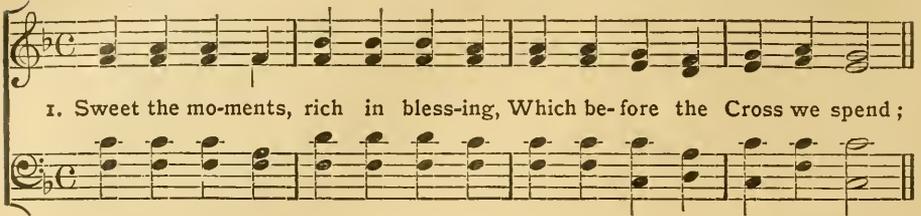

5 Draughts of life, O dear Redeemer,
 From those springs to us afford;
 Thirst refreshing, health bestowing,
 And hereafter our reward:
 That with ceaseless rapture glowing Ransomed worlds may hail Thee Lord.

Lent.

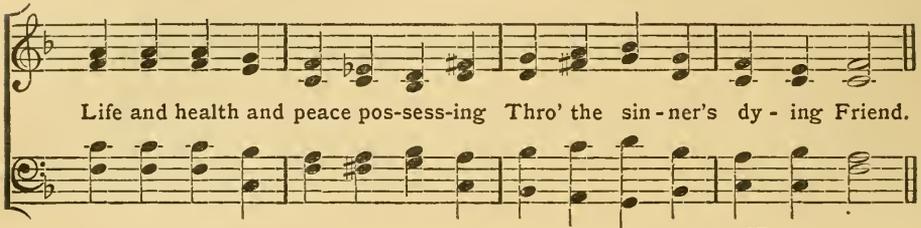

Sweet the moments.

Hymn 47.

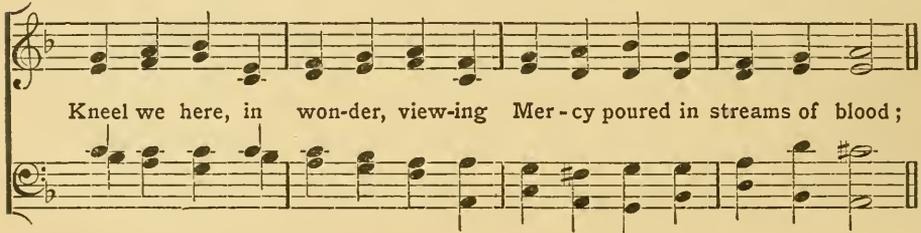

87s. Double.

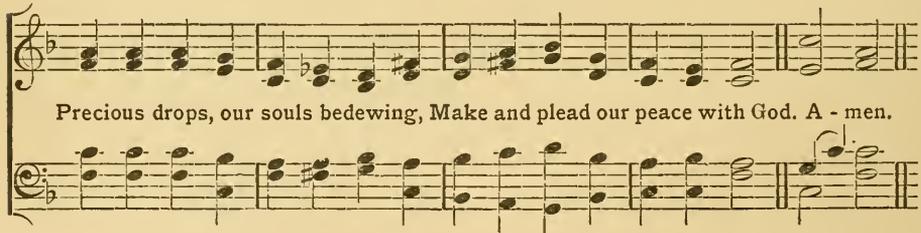

1. Sweet the mo-ments, rich in bless-ing, Which be-fore the Cross we spend ;

Life and health and peace pos-sess-ing Thro' the sin-ner's dy-ing Friend.

Kneel we here, in won-der, view-ing Mer-cy poured in streams of blood ;

Precious drops, our souls bedewing, Make and plead our peace with God. A - men.

2 Truly blessèd is the station,
Low before the Cross to lie,
While we see divine compassion
Beaming in his dying Eye.
Lord, in ceaseless contemplation
Fix our hearts and eyes on Thee,
Till we taste thy whole salvation,
And thine unveiled glories see.

3 For thy Sorrows we adore Thee,
For the Griefs that wrought our peace ;
Gracious Saviour, we implore Thee,
In our hearts thy love increase.
Unto Thee, the world's Salvation,
Father, Spirit, unto Thee
Low we bow in adoration,
Ever blessed One and Three. Amen.

At the Cross her Station keeping,

Hymn 48.

887.

1. At the cross her sta - tion keep - ing, Stood the mourn - ful Moth - er, weep - ing, Close to Je - sus to the last. A - men.

- 2 Through her heart, his sorrow sharing,
All his bitter anguish bearing,
Now at length the sword had pass'd.
- 3 O! how sad and sore distressed
Was that Mother highly blessed
Of the sole-begotten One!
- 4 O that silent, ceaseless mourning,
O those dim eyes never turning
From that wondrous, suffering Son!
- 5 For his people's sins, th' All-Holy
There she saw, a Victim lowly,
Bleed in torments—bleed and die;
- 6 Saw the Lord's Anointed taken;
Saw her Child in death forsaken;
Heard his last expiring cry.
- 7 Those Five Wounds of Jesu smitten,
Mother, in my heart be written
Deeply as in thine they be:

Thou, thy Son's Rebuke who sharest,
Let me share them both with thee. Amen.

all our sins for - give, And all our sins, And all our sins... for - give.

2d Station.

Why choose a death of fierce delay
To agonize thy life away?
And why do thy embraces greet
The cross as if Thou deemst it sweet?
Thou dost! A sateless love, we know,
Must ever glut itself on woe.

3d Station.

Thou fallest—all too weak! The might
That bears creation's infinite
As tho' its myriad worlds were none,
Has sunk beneath the sins of one!
Ye ruthless stones, thou heedless sod,
How can ye wound your prostrate God?

4th Station.

They raise Him up, and goad Him on:
When lo, the Mother meets the Son!
How heart rends heart as eye to eye
Darts the mute anguish of reply!
Sweet Lady, traitor tho' I be,
Yet let me follow Him with thee.

5th Station.

The soldiers fear to see him die
Too soon for Cross and Calvary;
And the Cyrenian, captive made,
Reluctant lends his timely aid.
O happy Simon—didst thou know!
Give me the load thou scornest so!

Lent.

6th Station.

Who calls that face unlovely now,
For furrowed cheek and thorn-pierced
To me it never seem'd so fair; [brow?
For when was love so written there?
Kind Veronica, get me grace
To keep like thee that pictur'd face.

7th Station.

Again He falls! Again they deal
Their ruffian blows—those hearts of steel!
He hails his mother; and the throng
Slink back to let her pass along.
She kneels to soothe Him and caress,
And rage grows dumb at her distress.

8th Station.

The tender women mourn his fate,
With Mary's grief compassionate.
How blest such mourners He hath said:
They shall indeed be comforted.
And He, in turn, has tears for them—
Daughters of lost Jerusalem.

9th Station.

And yet another fall! Ah why?
'Tis my repeated perfidy.
O Jesus, I but live in vain,
If only to be false again:
O Mary, grant me, I implore,
To die this hour, or sin no more!

10th Station.

The Way—the lingering Way—is past,
And Calvary's top is gained at last.
With gall the soldiers mock his thirst,
Then strip Him in their glee accurst.
Descend, ye Angels! Round Him flame,
And with your pinions veil his shame!

11th Station.

Ah, see, they stretch Him on the wood;
The blunt nails spurt the precious Blood!
Nor his alone their every sting,
For Mary hears the hammers ring.
Lord, let that sound my music be
When the death-hour shall strike for me.

12th Station.

A horror wraps the earth and sky
While three long times go darkly by:
And now, "'Tis finished!" Jesus cries,
And awfully the God-Man dies.
My heart, canst thou survive content?
Behold, the very rocks are rent.

13th Station.

Desolate Mother, clasping there
Thy lifeless Son, yet hear my prayer.
Tho' never was a grief like thine,
And never was a guilt like mine;
Yet should I not be dear to thee
Since He thou lovest died for me?

14th Station.

His lovers lay Him in the tomb,
And leave Him to its peaceful gloom.
Thou sleepest, Lord, thy labor done;
For me—for all—redemption won.
And I, in turn, as dead would be
And buried to all else but Thee.

The Congregation will sing the FIRST Refrain, or any of the following ones as directed.

1 Come, let us fall before his Cross,
Who died that we might live.
O Jesus! hear our contrite prayer
And all our sins forgive.

2 Cry out! O sinful man, cry out
As long as thou hast breath—
"Release my Lord who never sinned,
Take me, not Him to death."

3 My Jesus! here I see Thee die
In shame and grief for me;
Forgive me, Lord, my many sins
And take me back to Thee.

4 When shall our hardened hearts resolve
From sinful deeds to flee;
Thou hast not sinned, dear Lord, like us,
O let us die for Thee!

Ah! wounded Head.

Hymn 50.

S. M. Double.

1. Ah! wound-ed Head, must Thou En - dure such shame and scorn?

Lent.

- 2 Thou noble Countenance!
 All earthly lights are pale
 Before the brightness of that glance
 At which a world shall quail.
 How is it quench'd and gone!
 Those gracious eyes how dim!
 Whence grew that cheek so pale and
 Who dared to scoff at Him? [wan,
- 3 All lovely hues of life,
 That glow'd on lip and cheek,
 Have vanished in that awful strife;
 The Mighty One is weak.
 Pale Death has won the day,
 He triumphs in this hour,
 When strength and beauty fade away,
 And yield them to his power.
- 4 Ah! Lord, thy woes belong,
 Thy cruel pains, to me:
 The burden of my sin and wrong
 Hath all been laid on Thee.

Look on me where I kneel,
 Wrath were my rightful lot,
 One glance of love, oh, let me feel!
 Redeemer, spurn me not!

- 5 Ah! would that I could share
 Thy cross, thy bitter woes!
 All true delight lies hidden there,
 Thence all true comfort flows.
 Ah! well were it for me
 Could I here end my strife,
 And die upon the cross with Thee,
 Who art my Life of life.
- 6 Come to me ere I die,
 My comfort and my shield,
 And gazing on thy Cross can I
 Calmly my spirit yield.
 When life is well nigh past,
 My dark'ning eyes shall dwell
 On Thee, my heart shall hold Thee fast;
 Who dieth thus, dies well! Amen.

Lord Jesu, when we stand afar.

Hymn 51.

L. M.

1. Lord Je - su, when we stand a - far And gaze up - on thy Ho - ly Cross, In love of Thee, and scorn of self, Oh! may we count the world as loss. A - men.

 And the rough way that Thou hast trod,
 Make us to hate the load of sin,
 That lay so heavy on our God.
- 3 O Holy Lord! uplifted high,
 With outstretched arms, in mortal woe,

Embracing in thy wondrous love
 The sinful world that lies below!

- 4 Give us an ever-living faith
 To gaze beyond the things we see;
 And in the mystery of thy death
 Draw us and all men unto Thee.

Amen.

Christ, the Life of all the living.

Hymn 52.

87s. 7s.

1. Christ, the Life of all the liv - ing, Christ, the Death of death our foe,

Who, Thy-self for us once giv - ing To the darkest depths of woe,

Pa - tient - ly didst yield thy breath, Man to save from sin and death ;

Thousand, thousand thanks shall be, Bless-ed Je-su, brought to Thee. A - men.

2 Thou, ah, Thou hast taken on Thee
Bitter strokes, a cruel rod ;
Pain and scorn were heaped upon Thee,
O Thou sinless Son of God ;
Only thus for us to win
Rescue from the bonds of sin ;
Thousand, thousand thanks shall be,
Blessed Jesu, brought to Thee.

3 Thou didst bear the smiting, only
That it might not fall on me ;
Stoodest falsely charged and lonely,
That I might be safe and free ;

Comfortless, that I might know
Comfort from thy boundless woe ;
Thousand, thousand thanks shall be,
Blessed Jesu, brought to Thee.

4 Then for all that wrought our pardon,
For thy sorrows deep and sore,
For thine anguish in the garden,
I will thank Thee evermore ;
Thank Thee with the latest breath
For thy sad and cruel death ;
For that last most bitter cry,
Praise Thee evermore on high. Amen.

Betwixt those robbers twain;
The Lamb, ordained of old for sacrifice,
By sinners slain.
- 3 Pale grows his Face, and fixed his languid Eye;
His wearied Head He bends;
And, Priest and Victim, forth with one loud cry
His Spirit sends.
- 4 O heart more hard than iron, not to weep
At this! Thy sin it was
That wrought his Death; of all these torments deep
Thou art the cause.

To Him, the Son of God;
Who wiped away our deadly stains of crime
In his own Blood. Amen.

Wherein have I wearied thee? An-swer tru - ly, faith-ful - ly! A - men.

2 From the strange Egyptian land
Brought I thee with mighty hand;
For thy Saviour's welcome now
Cross and grave prearest thou!

3 God of holiness and might!
God, Immortal, Infinite!
Holy and Immortal King!
Hear in mercy as we sing!

4 Forty years through desert led,
Forty years with manna fed,
For thy Saviour's welcome now
Cross and grave prearest thou!

5 God of holiness and might!
God, Immortal, Infinite!
Holy and Immortal King,
Hear in mercy as we sing!

6 Choicest vine I planted thee:
Bitter fruit thou yieldest Me;
Vinegar to Me dost bear,
Piercing Me with cruel spear.

When I rescued Israel;
When his sympathy I seek,
I am smitten on the cheek.

Lent.

Now let us join with hearts and tongues.

Hymn 61.

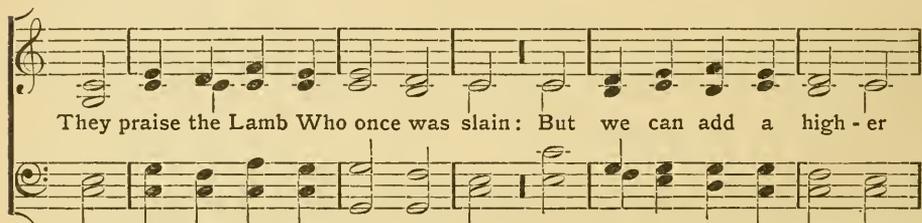

L. M. Double.

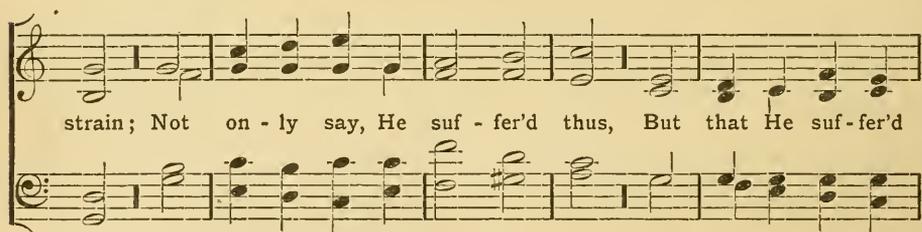

1. Now let us join with hearts and tongues, And em - u - late the an - gels' songs ;

Yea, sin - ners may ad - dress their King In songs that an - gels can - not sing.

They praise the Lamb Who once was slain : But we can add a high - er strain ; Not on - ly say, He suf - fer'd thus, But that He suf - fer'd all for us, But that He suf - fer'd all for us. A - men.

Lent.

2 Jesus, Who passed the angels by,
Assumed our flesh to bleed and die;
And still He makes it his abode;
As man He fills the throne of God.
Our next of kin, our Brother now,
Is He to Whom the angels bow;
They join with us to praise his Name,
And we the nearest interest claim.

3 But ah! how faint our praises rise!
Sure, 'tis the wonder of the skies,
That we, who share his richest love,
So cold and unconcerned should prove.
O glorious hour! it comes with speed,
When we, from sin and darkness freed,
Shall see the God Who died for man,
And praise Him more than angels can.
Amen.

Beneath thy Cross I lay me down.

Hymn 62.

L. M.

1. Be - neath thy Cross I lay me down, And mourn to see thy blood - y crown: Love drops in blood from ev - ery vein; Love is the spring of all thy pain. A - men.

2 Here, Jesus, I will ever stay,
And spend my longing hours away;
Think on thy grievous wounds and pain,
And contemplate thy woes again.

3 The rage of Satan and of sin,
Of foes without, and fears within,
Shall ne'er my conquering soul remove,
Or from thy Cross, or from thy love.

4 O unmolested happy rest!
Where foes and fears are all supprest;
Here I shall love, and live secure,
And patiently my cross endure. Amen.

Hymn 63.

All glory, laud, and honor.

76s. Double.

1. All glo - ry, laud, and hon - or, To Thee, Re - deem - er, King!

To Whom the lips of chil - dren Made sweet Ho - san - nas ring.

Thou art the King of Is - rael, Thou Da - vid's Roy - al Son, Who in the Lord's Name com - est, The King and Bless - ed One. A - men.

- 2 The companies of angels
Are praising Thee on high;
And mortal men, and all things
Created, make reply.
The children of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went:
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before thee we present.
- 3 To Thee, before thy Passion,
They raised their hymns of praise;
To Thee, now throned in glory,
Our melody we raise.

- Thou didst accept their praises:
Accept the prayers we bring
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.
- 4 These palms shall signal for us
Our victory o'er the foe;
That in the Conqueror's triumph
This strain may ever flow:—
All glory, laud, and honor,
To Thee, Redeemer, King!
To Whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring. Amen.

The Day of Resurrection!

Hymn 65.

76s. Double.

1. The Day of Re - sur - rec - tion! Earth, tell it out a - broad;

The Pass - o - ver of glad - ness, The Pass - o - ver of God.

From death to life e - ter - nal, From earth un - to the sky, Our Christ hath brought us o - ver, With hymns of vic - to - ry. A - men.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection-light;
And, listening to his accents,
May hear so calm and plain
His own "All hail," and hearing
May raise the victor strain.

3 Now let the heavens be joyful,
And earth her song begin,
The round world keep high triumph,
And all that is therein:
Let all things seen and unseen
Their notes of gladness blend,
For Christ the Lord is risen,
Our Joy that hath no end. Amen.

Easter.

Far be sorrow, tears, and sighing.

Hymn 66.

1. Far be sor - row, tears, and sigh - ing : Waves are calming, storms are dy - ing ;

Mo - ses hath o'erpassed the sea ; . . . Is - rael's cap - tive hosts are free.

Life by death slew death and saved us ; In his Blood the Lamb hath laved us, Clothing us with vic - to - ry. Al - le - lu - ia ! A - men.

2 Hark ! the deep abysses thunder ;
Hark ! the chains are snapped in sunder ;
And the unfettered fathers rise
Soaring toward the opened skies.
God and Man, our ransom paying,
And in light Himself arraying,
Now has won the victory.
Alleluia !

3 Jesus Christ from death is risen :
'Tis his Godhead bursts the prison,
While his Manhood rises free
O'er our mortal misery :

And to sinners brings salvation :
Thus in God's humiliation
Man has won the victory.
Alleluia !

4 This the law our Saviour teaches ;
This the call his triumph preaches ;
Sinner, from the grave of sin
Rise, eternal joy to win ;
From the death our sin decreed us,
Sinless He from death has freed us ;
Sing we then his victory.
Alleluia ! Amen.

 Air delights to dance and play;
 Water ripples laughingly;
 Earth is bright and gay;
 Things below and things above,
 With a fresh life-impulse move:
 All is new to-day. | 4 Now is loosed death's icy grasp;
 This world's prince is trodden down;
 Reft are we from Satan's clasp
 Whom he deemed his own:
 Grasping with his wily art
 Him, in Whom he had no part,
 He is overthrown. |
| 3 Brighter azure decks the skies;
 Ocean seeks a calmer rest;
 Breeze to breeze more softly sighs;
 Meads with flowers are drest;
 Arid wilds with verdure gleam;
 Limpid flows the ice-bound stream
 At Spring's mild behest. | 5 Death by Life is overcome:
 Bright before man's wondering eyes
 Dawn the glories of his home,
 His lost Paradise.
 Now at Christ's compelling word
 Cherubim with sheathed sword
 Point to opening skies. Amen. |

Hymn 68.

In thy glorious Resurrection.

887 887.

1. In thy glo - rious Re - sur - rec - tion, Lord, we see a world's e - rec - tion ;

Man in Thee is glo - ri - fied ; Bliss for which the Patriarchs pant-ed,

Joys by ho - ly psalmists chant-ed, Now in Thee are ver - i - fied. A - men.

2 Oracles of former ages,
Veiled in dim prophetic pages,
Now lie open to the sight ; [ling
Now the types, which glimmered dark-
In the twilight gloom are sparkling
In the blaze of noonday light.

3 Isaac from the wood is risen ;
Joseph issues from the prison ;
See the Paschal Lamb which saves !
Israel through the sea is landed :
Pharaoh and his host are stranded
And o'erwhelmèd in the waves.

4 See the cloudy Pillar leading,
Rock refreshing, Manna feeding ;
Joshua fights, and Moses prays.
See the lifted Wave-sheaf, cheering
Pledge of harvest-fruits appearing,
Joyful dawn of happy days.

5 Samson see at night uptearing
Gaza's brazen gates, and bearing
To the top of Hebron's hill :
Jonah comes from stormy surges,
From his three days' grave emerges,
Bids beware of coming ill.

6 Thus thy Resurrection's glory
Sheds a light on ancient story :
And it casts a forward ray,
Beacon light of solemn warning,
To the dawn of that great Morning
Ushering in the Judgment Day. Amen.

Beneath a mighty arm.

Hymn 73.

6s.

1. Beneath a mighty arm We passed the cleft Red Sea; And broke at length the yoke Of bitter slavery. A - men.

- 2 To God we raise our thanks
Who our Deliverer came;
And, robed in pureness, through
The Altar of the Lamb.
- 3 He gave his Flesh and Blood:
Oh, then, in holy love,
Upon Him let us feed,
And live to God above.
- 4 Christ is our Passover,
The spotless Lamb of God:
Death's angel passes by,
Those sprinkled with his Blood.

- 5 O Victim, worthy heaven,
By Whom death vanquished fell,
The dungeon gates were burst,
The prey brought back from hell:
- 6 We hail Thee from the grave
In triumph come again,
To bind our foes in hell,
And open heaven to man.
- 7 Grant us with Thee to die,
With Thee to rise above;
To spurn the things of earth,
The joys of heaven to love. Amen.

Dims yon glorious morning ray
Breaking o'er the purple east:

 On this his glorious triumph-morn.

4 "Ye see Him now, ascending high
 To seek the portals of the sky:
 Hereafter Jesus ye shall see
 Return in equal majesty."

5 Lord, grant that we may thither tend,
 And with unwearied hearts ascend
 Where, seated on thy Father's throne,
 Thee reigning, King of kings, we own.

6 Be Thou our Joy on earth, O Lord,
 Who art to be our great Reward:
 And as the countless ages flee,
 Let all our glory be in Thee.

 O highest Gift of God most High,
 O Fount of Life, O Fire of Love,
 O solemn Unction from above!

 Thee, Finger of God's Hand we own:
 The promise of the Father Thou,
 Who dost the tongue with power endow.

4 Our senses kindle from above,
 And make our hearts o'erflow with love:
 With thine unfailling strength refresh
 The weakness of our mortal flesh.

5 Drive far from us the foe we dread,
 And grant us thy true peace instead:
 With Thee for Guardian, Thee for Guide,
 No evil can our steps betide.

6 Oh, let thy grace on us bestow
 The Father and the Son to know,
 And Thee, thro' endless time confessed,
 Of Both the Eternal Spirit Blest.

 Be to the Father; to the Son, [Thee,
 Who rose from death; like praise to
 O Holy Ghost, eternally. Amen.

Bitterness shall not draw near us;
Wrath shall flee before thy Face.
There is no delight, no sweetness,
Health, nor comfort, nor completeness,
Where Thou dost withhold thy grace.

Water with a mystic power;
Oil to heal us, Light to guide:
Praise we offer, new-created,
And from wrath to grace translated,
We, whom Thou hast purified.

Gift, Thyself, beyond expressing,
Teach us how to worship Thee!
Cleanse our sins; in Christ renew us;

 With thy sole-begotten Son,

 God the Spirit, Stream Vivific,
 Ceaselessly by Both outpoured,

 Equally with both adored.

 Three in One, and One in Three,
 Thine united glories merit
 Thanks and praise continually :
 Praise to Thee and adoration
 On thy Festival be done,

 For the Coming of the Spirit ;
 For the gift of endless life ;
 For the joys that Saints inherit
 When they cease from earthly strife.

 Paid throughout the Church to Thee,
 For the majesty transcending
 Of thy Triune Deity :
 Sun of splendor never waning,
 Fount of sweetness never dry,
 Staff of comfort all-sustaining,

 Thus thy glorious Name confessing
 We repeat the angels' cry,—
 "Holy, Holy, Holy,"—blessing

3 Oh! see upon the altar placed
The Victim of divinest love.
Let all the earth below adore,
And join the choirs of heaven above.

4 Jesu, dear Pastor of the flock,
We crowd in love about thy feet.
Our voices yearn to praise Thee, Lord,
And joyfully thy presence greet.

5 Sound, sound his praises higher still,
And come, ye angels, to our aid.
'Tis God, 'tis God, the very God,

Of the glorious Body telling.

Hymn 99.

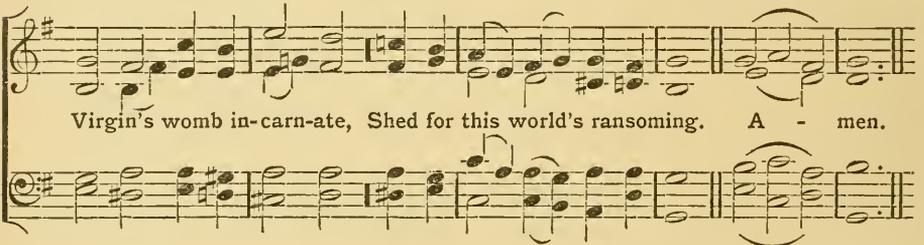

87s. Six lines.

1. Of the glo-rious Bod-y tell - ing, O my tongue, the Mystery sing ;

And the Blood, all price exceed-ing, Which our Lord, the Gentiles' King, In the Virgin's womb in-carn-ate, Shed for this world's ransoming. A - men.

2 Giv'n for us, for us proceeding
Of a Virgin pure as snow,
He, as Man with man conversing,
Dwelt the word of life to sow ;
Closing with a wondrous ending
To his sojourn here below.

3 That last night at supper seated,
Circled by his brethren's band ;
Fully with the Law complying
In the meats its rites demand ;
He, a richer meat bestowing,
Gives Himself with his own Hand.

4 Word made Flesh, by word He maketh
Very bread his Flesh to be ;
Wine the Blood of Christ becometh :
What tho' sense no change can see ?
Faith the guileless soul enableth
To behold the verity.

5 Thus in thankful love adoring
We his unseen Presence hail ;
Older form their place resigning,
Newer rites of grace prevail :
Willing faith all want supplying
Where our feebler senses fail.

6 Praise to God, the eternal Father,
Praise to God, the eternal Son,
Praise to God, the eternal Spirit,
One in Three, and Three in One :
Honor, praise, salvation, blessing,
Now and evermore be done. Amen.

 Till all be past.

 Archangels, fold your wings;
 Seraphs, hush all the strings
 Of million lyres.
 The Victim, veiled on earth, in love
 Unveiled, enthroned, adored above,
 All heaven admires.

4 Behold the Lamb of God!
 Drop down, ye glorious skies;
 He dies, He dies, He dies,
 For man once lost.
 Yet, lo! He lives, He lives, He lives,
 And to his Church Himself He gives,
 Incarnate Host.

5 Behold the Lamb of God!
 All hail! Eternal Word,
 Thou universal Lord,
 Purge out our leaven,
 Clothe us with godliness and good,
 Feed us with thy celestial food,
 Manna from heaven.

6 Behold the Lamb of God!
 Saints wrapped in blissful rest,
 Souls waiting to be blessed,
 O Lord! how long! [fears,
 Thou, Church on earth, o'erwhelmed with Still in this vale of woe and tears,
 Swell the full song.

1. O vault of heav-en, clear and bright! All spangled o'er with stars to - night,

Canst say how man-y worlds of light A - dorn thy glo-rious fir - ma - ment?

Sac - ra - ment, The sweet, All Ho - ly Sac - ra - ment. A - men.

The Blessed Sacrament.

2 O shining sun! for every ray
That from thee beamed since Eden's day,
And shall, till this world pass away,
And all thy light and heat be spent:
For each bright ray my voice I'd raise
To Him Who hath my heart always,
And sing a canticle of praise
To this Most Holy Sacrament.

3 O trackless sea! could I but save
And count each short-lived glist'ning wave;
Their sum would tell how oft I crave
To praise the Blessed Sacrament.
O fields! for every grassy blade
Of which thy beauteous robe is made,
Let offerings sweet of praise be laid
Before the Blessed Sacrament.

4 O pleasant gardens! could I know
How many flowers within you grow:
So many flowers of praise I'd strew
Before the Blessed Sacrament.
O wide, wide world! canst tell to me
How many grains of dust in thee?
So many would my praises be
To this Most Holy Sacrament.

5 O earth! thy praises have an end;
To seraphs I the task commend.
Their tireless voices they must lend
To praise the Blessed Sacrament.
Eternity! duration long!
To thee alone it doth belong
To measure when should cease the song
That lauds the Blessed Sacrament!

Heaven is all too strait
For thine endless glory,
And thy royal state.

3 Out beyond the shining

Thou art ever stretching Infinitely far ;

Hold what worlds cannot,
And the God of wonders
Loves the lowly spot.

Gift that truly maketh
Heaven's eternal bliss.

Make our hearts thy home?

How shall I meet Thee?

Hymn 106.

C. M. Double.

The musical score is written in C major, common time, and consists of four systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The lyrics are printed below the treble staff of each system.

1. How shall I meet Thee? How my heart Re - ceive her Lord a - right?
 De - sire of all the earth, Thou art My hope, my sole de - light.
 Kin - dle the lamp, Thou, Lord, a - lone, Half dy - ing in my breast, And make thy gra - cious pleasure known How I may greet Thee best. A - men.

2 In heavy bonds I languish'd long,
 Thou com'st to set me free;
 The scorn of every mocking tongue,
 Thou com'st to honor me.
 A heavenly crown Thou dost bestow,
 And gifts of priceless worth,
 That vanish not, as here below
 The riches of the earth.

3 Nought, nought, dear Lord! had power to Thee from thy rightful place, [move
 Save that almighty, wondrous Love
 Wherewith Thou dost embrace
 This weary world and all her woe,
 Her load of grief and ill,
 And sorrow; more than man can know;
 Thy love is deeper still.

4 Vex not your souls with care, nor grieve
 And labor longer thus,
 As though your arm could aught achieve,
 And bring Him down to us.
 He comes, He comes with ready will,
 By pity moved alone,
 All pain to soothe, all tears to still,
 To Him they all are known.

5 Oh, write this promise in your heart,
 Ye sad at heart, with whom
 Sorrows fall thick, and joys depart
 And darker grows your gloom.
 Despair not, for your help is near,
 He standeth at the door,
 Who best can comfort you and cheer,
 He comes, nor stayeth more. Amen.

When death is drawing nigh;

O Jesu, my Redeemer.

Hymn III.

7686 8686.

1. O Je - su, my Re - deem - er! How com - forts it my heart,

To med - i - tate up - on Thy - self Here pre - sent as Thou art.

But with my joy a grief I find That fills my heart with pain, How man-y this high gift de - ny, Or faithlessly pro - fane. A - men.

2 From out the folds of darkness
That veil thy glory o'er,
I seem to hear thy pleading voice,
As from the Cross of yore,—
“Come near,” Thou say'st, “and be ye
So thankless and untrue; [not
For never suffered man so much
As I your God for you.

3 “Come near, and in my Presence
A few short moments spend,
For quickly fleets your life away,
And soon there comes an end.”
Thus from thy holy altar-throne,
Thou seemest, Lord, to plead:
But man, vain man, he passes on,
And gives Thee little heed.

The Blessed Sacrament.

4 O Christ! for all dishonors,
Neglect and cruel wrong,
Which Thou in thy dear Sacrament
Endurest all day long,
This reparation, Lord, accept,
Unworthy, though it be,
Receive the homage of my heart,
Which here I offer Thee.

5 With all devout affections
Enrich me from above,
That I may value as I ought
This miracle of love.
And let the ardor of that love
Consume me more and more,
Until I see thy Face in bliss
Unveiled for evermore. Amen.

Come, let me for a moment cast.

Hymn 112.

1. Come, let me for a moment cast All earth - ly

2 This morning that Eternal Lord,
Who is my judge to be,
Came to this lowly tenement,
And stayed a while with me.

3 With his celestial Flesh and Blood,
My fainting soul He fed;
With tender words of grace and love,
My heart He comforted.

4 He, Who of all that live and breathe
Is all the life and breath,
This morning deigned to visit me
In this, my house of death!

5 He Who in awful Godhead sits
Upon his throne on high,
This morning entered my abode
In his Humanity!

6 O soul of mine! reflect, reflect;
Consider, one by one,
What marvels of surpassing grace
Thy God in thee has done.

7 His tender love with love repay;
Extol his sacred Name;
To all the world his greatness tell,
His graciousness proclaim. Amen.

2 To sorrowing, contrite hearts what joy
To hear those words so blest :—

“All ye that labor come to Me,
And I will give you rest.”

What meeker than the Saviour's Heart
As on the Cross He lay?
It did his murderers forgive,
And for their pardon pray.

3 O Heart! Thou Joy of saints on high,
Thou Hope of sinners here!
Attracted by those loving words,
To thee I lift my prayer.
Wash Thou my wounds in that dear Blood
Which forth from Thee doth flow;
New grace, new hope inspire; a new
And better heart bestow. Amen.

O Sacred Heart, let all the earth.

Hymn 115.

C. M. Double.

1. O Sa-cred Heart, let all the earth Join with the heavens a-bove,

And eve-ry voice with sweet-est notes Pro-claim thy death-less love.

Come, Christians, come, and see how sin The Lord of love has slain;

Crave pardon of his Sa-cred Heart, And nev-er sin a-gain. A-men.

2 Sweet, patient, kind and loving Lord,
My sins have wounded Thee;
O take me to thy Sacred Heart,
Its Love will pardon me.
O Christians, see what grievous wounds
For love your Saviour bore;
Take refuge in His Sacred Heart,
And you will sin no more.

3 Friendless I stand beside thy cross,
In guilt and misery;
O take me to thy wounded Heart,
Its Love will comfort me.
Come, Christians, come and see what sin
Against your Lord could do;
Then look into his Heart, and see
What He hath done for you.

The Sacred Heart.

4 Homeless, amid this stormy world,
Far have I strayed from Thee;
Open to me thy Sacred Heart,
Its Love will shelter me.
Come, Christians, come and see how sin
The Lord of love has slain;
Crave pardon of his Sacred Heart,
And never sin again.

5 Yes, take me, bind me, Lord of love,
And hide me in thy breast;
No other love can give such bliss,
And only there is rest!
O Christians! see what grievous wounds
For love your Saviour bore;
Come, hide within his Sacred Heart,
And we will sin no more. Amen.

Jesu, Creator of the world.

Hymn 116.

L. M.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a bass clef staff. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are printed below the vocal line.

1. Je - su, Cre - a - tor of the world, Of all man - kind Re - deem - er blest! True God of God, in whom we see The rit.
Fa - ther's im - age clear ex - pressed. A - - men.

2 Thee, Saviour, Love alone constrained
To make our mortal flesh thine own;
And as a second Adam come,
For the first Adam to atone.

4 O Jesu! in thy Heart divine
May that same love for ever glow;
For ever mercy to mankind
From that exhaustless Fountain flow.

3 That self-same Love which made the sky, [earth,
Which made the sea, and stars, and
Took pity on our misery,
And broke the bondage of our birth.

5 For this thy Sacred Heart was pierced,
And both with Blood and Water ran;
To cleanse us from the stains of guilt,
And be the strength and hope of man.

6 To God the Father, and the Son,
All praise and power and glory be,
With Thee, O Holy Comforter,
Henceforth through all eternity. Amen.

The Sacred Heart.

O Jesus, open wide thy Heart.

Hymn 117.

C. M. Double.

1. O Je - sus, o - pen wide thy heart, And let me rest there-in;

For wea - ry is my strick-en soul Of sor - row and of sin.

O Je - su, Je - su! Vic - tim blest, What else but Love Di - vine Could

- 2 O Veil of awful mystery!
O Temple all sublime!
Thou Sanctuary, holier far
Than that of olden time.
O Fount of endless Life and Joy!
O Spring of waters clear!
O Flame celestial, cleansing all
Who unto Thee draw near.
- 3 Beneath this emblem of pure love,
'Twas Love Himself that died,
And offered up Himself for us,
A Victim crucified.

- Blest Heart of Christ, in thy dear wound
The hidden depth we see
Of what we else could never know—
His boundless charity.
- 4 Oh, who of his redeemed will Him
Their mutual love refuse?
Who would not rather in that Heart
Their home eternal choose?
Yes, take me to that Place of Rest,
And seal the entrance o'er,
That from that home my wayward heart
May never wander more. Amen.

The Precious Blood.

Hymn 118.

Glory be to Jesus.

65s. Double.

1. Glo - ry be to Je - sus, Who in bit - ter pains

Poured for me his Life - blood From his sa - cred veins!

Grace and life e - ter - nal In that Blood I find;

Blest be his com - pas - sion, In - fin - ite - ly kind. A - men

- 2 Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream
Which from endless torment
Doth the world redeem.
There the fainting spirit
Drinks of life her fill;
There, as in a fountain,
Laves herself at will.
- 3 O the Blood of Christ!
It soothes the Father's ire;
Opes the gates of heaven;
Quells eternal fire.

- Abel's blood for vengeance
Pleaded to the skies;
But the Blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries.
- 4 Oft as earth, exulting,
Wafts its praise on high,
Hell with terror trembles,
Heaven is filled with joy.
Lift ye, then, your voices;
Swell the mighty flood;
Louder still and louder
Praise the Precious Blood. Amen.

The Precious Blood.

Forth let the long procession stream.

Hymn 119.

8810 6.

1. Forth let the long pro - ces - sion stream, And through the streets in or - der wend; Let the bright wav - ing line of tor - ches gleam, The sol - emn chant as - cend. A - - men.

2 While we with tears and sighs profound,
That memorable Blood record,
Which, stretch'd on his hard Cross, from many a wound
The dying Jesus poured.

3 By the first Adam's fatal sin
Came death upon the human race;
In this new Adam doth new life begin,
And everlasting grace.

4 For scarce the Father heard from heaven
The cry of his expiring Son,
When in that cry our sins were all forgiven,
And boundless pardon won.

5 Henceforth, whoso in that dear Blood
Doth wash, shall lose his every stain;
And in immortal roseate beauty robed,
An angel's likeness gain.

6 Only run thou with courage on Straight to the goal set in the skies;
He, Who assists thy course, will give thee soon
Th' incomparable prize.

7 Father supreme! vouchsafe that we,
For whom thine only Son was slain,
And whom thy Holy Ghost dost sanc-tify,
May to thy joys attain. Amen.

The Holy Name of Jesus.

Jesu, Name all names above.

Hymn 120.

76s. 8877.

1. Je - su, Name all names a - bove, Je - su, best and dear - est,

Je - su, Fount of per - fect love, Holi - est, ten - d'rest, near - est ;

Je - su, Source of grace com - plet - est, Je - su pur - est, Je - su sweetest,

Je - su, Well of power di - vine, Make me, keep me, seal me Thine. A - men.

- 2 Jesu, open me the gate
 Which the sinner entered,
 Who, in his last dying state,
 Wholly on Thee ventured;
 Thou, whose Wounds are ever pleading,
 And thy Passion interceding,
 From my misery let me rise
 To a home in Paradise.
- 3 Thou didst call the Prodigal:
 Thou didst pardon Mary:
 Thou, whose words can never fall,
 Love can never vary;

Lord, to heal my lost condition
 Give,—for Thou canst give,—contrition;
 Thou canst pardon all my ill
 If Thou wilt: O say “I will!”

- 4 When I cross Death's bitter sea,
 And its waves roll higher,
 Help the more forsaking me
 As the storm draws nigher:
 Jesu, leave me not to languish,
 Helpless, hopeless, full of anguish;
 Tell me, “Verily, I say,
 Thou shalt be with Me to-day.”

The Holy Name of Jesus.

Jesus, the very thought of Thee.

Hymn 121.

C. M. Double.

1. Je - sus, the ver - y thought of Thee With sweetness fills my breast ;

But sweet-er far thy face to see, And in thy pre-sence rest.

Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame, Nor can the mem-ory find A sweet-er sound than thy blest name, O Sav-iour of man-kind ! A - men.

2 O hope of every contrite heart !
 O joy of all the meek !
 To those who fall how kind Thou art !
 How good to those who seek !
 But what to those who find ? Ah ! this
 Nor tongue nor pen can show.
 The love of Jesus, what it is None but his loved ones know.

3 O Jesu, light of all below !
 Thou Fount of life and fire !
 Surpassing all the joys we know,
 And all we can desire.

Thee will I seek, at home, abroad,
 Who everywhere art nigh ;
 Thee in my bosom's cell, O Lord,
 As on my bed I lie.

4 With Mary to thy tomb I'll haste,
 Before the dawning skies,
 And all around with longing cast
 My soul's inquiring eyes :
 Beside thy grave will make my moan,
 And sob my heart away ;
 Then at thy feet sink trembling down,
 And there adoring stay.

The Holy Name of Jesus.

5 O Jesu, Thou the beauty art
Of angel worlds above;
Thy Name is music to the heart,
Enchanting it with love.
For Thee I yearn, for Thee I sigh;
When wilt Thou come to me,
And make me glad eternally
With one blest sight of Thee?

6 May every heart confess thy Name,
And ever Thee adore;
And seeking Thee, itself inflame,
To seek Thee more and more!
And, O my Jesu, pardon me,
Unfit to speak thy praise;
Yet daring thus, for love of Thee,
My trembling hymn to raise. Amen.

How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds.

Hymn 122.

C. M.

1. How sweet the Name of Je - sus sounds! 'Tis mu - sic to the ear! Its soothes our sor - rows, heals our wounds, And drives a - way our fear. A - men.

2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

4 Jesus, my Shepherd, Husband, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

3 Dear Name! the Rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place,
My never-failing treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace.

5 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see Thee as Thou art,
I'll praise Thee as I ought.

6 Till then I would thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy Name
Refresh my soul in death. Amen.

The Holy Name of Jesus.

To the Name that brings salvation.

Hymn 123.

87s. Six lines.

1. To the Name that brings sal - va - tion Laud and hon - or

God's fore - knowl - edge lay: But with ho - ly ex - ul - ta - tion

2 Name of gladness, Name of pleasure,
Name beyond what words can tell;
Name of sweetness, passing measure,
Ear and heart delighting well:
'Tis our safeguard and our treasure,
'Tis our help 'gainst sin and hell.

3 'Tis the Name for adoration,
'Tis the Name of victory,
'Tis the Name for meditation
In the vale of misery,
Name for joyful veneration
By the citizens on high.

4 'Tis the Name that whoso preacheth
Finds it music to the ear;
'Tis the Name that whoso teacheth
Finds more sweet than honey's cheer:
Who its perfect wisdom reacheth
Heavenly joy possesseth here.

5 Jesu, we thy Name adoring
Long to see Thee as Thou art;
Of thy clemency imploring
So to write it in our heart,
That hereafter heavenward soaring
We with angels may have part. Amen.

The Holy Name of Jesus.

Let who will in thee rejoice.

Hymn 124.

7s. Double.

1. Let who will in thee re-joice, O thou fair and wondrous earth !

Ev-er anguish'd sorrow's voice Pierces through thy seeming mirth ; Let thy vain de-lights be given Un-to them that love not Heaven, My desire is fixed on Thee, Je-sus, dear-est far to me ! A - men.

2 Weary souls, with toil outworn,
 Drooping 'neath the long hot light,
 Wish that soon the coming morn
 Might be quench'd again in night,
 That their toil might find a close
 In a soft and deep repose ;
 I but wish to rest in Thee,
 Jesus, dearest far to me !

3 Others dare the treacherous wave,
 Hidden rock and shifting wind—
 Storm and danger let them brave,
 Earthly good or wealth to find ;
 Faith shall wing my upward flight
 Far above yon starry height,
 Till I find myself with Thee,
 Jesus, dearest Friend to me !

4 Many a time ere now I said,
 Many a time again shall say,
 Would to God that I were dead,
 Would that in my grave I lay !
 Death's approach who will may fly,
 'Twere a joy to me to die,
 For he opes the gates to Thee,
 Jesus, dearest Friend to me !

5 But not yet the gates of gold
 I may see, nor enter in,
 Nor the heavenly fields behold,
 But must sit, and mourning spin
 Life's dark thread on earth below ;
 Let my thoughts then hourly go
 Whither I myself would be,
 Jesus, dearest Lord, with Thee ! Amen.

The Blessed Virgin.

Hail, Virgin of virgins!

Hymn 130.

65s. Double.

The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of four systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are: 1. Hail, Vir - gin of vir - gins! Thy prais - es we sing, Thy throne is in heav - en, Thy Son is its King. The saints and the an - gels Thy glo - ry pro - claim; All na - tions de - vout - ly Bow down at thy name. A - men.

- 2 Let all sing of Mary,
The Mystical Rod,
The Mirror of Justice,
The Handmaid of God.
Let valley and mountain
Unite in her praise,
The sea with its waters,
The sun with its rays.
- 3 Let souls that are holy Still holier be,
To sing with the angels,
Sweet Mary, of thee.
Let all who are sinners
To virtue return,
That hearts without number
With thy love may burn.

- 4 Thy name is our power,
Thy love is our light;
We praise thee at morning,
At noon, and at night.
We thank thee, we bless thee,
When happy and free;
When tempted by Satan,
We call upon thee.
- 5 Oh! be thou our Mother,
And pray to the Lord,
That all may acknowledge
And worship his word.
That good men with courage
May walk in his ways,
And bad men, converted,
May join in his praise. Amen.

1. Hail, O - cean Star! Dear Moth - er of my God!

Hail! O thou Vir - gin ev - er - more, Of Par - a - dise the bliss - ful door; Hail, Ma - ry, hail! A - men.

2 Oh! by thy joy,
When Gabriel hailed thee blest,
In peace confirm us, one and all,
And make amends for Eva's fall;
Hail, Mary, hail!

3 Break thou the chain
Of those whom sin has bound;
Upon the blind thy radiance pour;
Each ill remove, each bliss implore;
Hail, Mary, hail!

4 Show, show thyself
The Mother that thou art;
Present our prayers before his throne,
Who for our sake became thy Son;
Hail, Mary, hail!

5 O Virgin blest;
O meekest of the meek!
Keep us in virtue's path secure;
Keep us, oh! keep us meek and pure;
Hail, Mary, hail!

6 Be thou our guide
Of all our life, we pray;
Till, near thee, safe at last we rest,
With Christ's eternal vision blest;
Hail, Mary, hail!

7 Through every time,
Through all eternity,
To Thee, O Father, Thee, O Son,
And Thee, O Spirit, Three in One!
One glory be! Amen.

The Blessed Virgin.

Star of Jacob!

Hymn 132.

87s.

1. Star of Ja-cob, ev-er beam-ing, Bright and clear, of peace the sign;

'Mid the stars of highest heaven Glows no purer ray than thine. A-men.

2 All in stoles of snowy brightness,
Unto thee the angels sing;
Unto thee the virgin choirs—
Mother of th' Eternal King!

4 Oh! that this low earth of ours,
Answering th' angelic strain,
With thy praises might re-echo,
Till the heavens replied again.

3 Joyful in thy path they scatter
Roses white and lilies fair;
Yet with thy chaste bosom's whiteness,
Rose nor lily can compare.

5 Honor, glory, virtue, merit,
Be to Thee, O Virgin's Son!
With the Father and the Spirit,
While eternal ages run. Amen.

O vision bright!

- 2 O vision bright! In gentle, loving flight
The Dove around his cherished Spouse doth fly:
Where in that height of mercy's gentle might,
Sweet Mary, our dear Mother, reigns on high.
- 3 O vision bright! Th' eternal, dazzling light
Of Jesus, her dear Son, we may descry;
Her form He bears, her own sweet look He wears:
Sweet Mary, our dear Mother, reigns on high.
- 4 O vision bright! Life's darkest, coldest night
Is fair as summer dawn when she is nigh:
Then swell the song with all the heavenly throng;
Sweet Mary, our dear Mother, reigns on high. Amen.

The Blessed Virgin.

Sweet is the task, O Virgin chaste.

Hymn 134.

C. M. Double.

1. Sweet is the task, O Vir - gin chaste, To sing thy fit - ting praise;

Who art the Moth - er of our Lord, The glo - ry of our days.

Hail, Ma - ry! Thou the gate of Heaven Hast op - ened to our race; Be - fore all saints and an - gels now Thou hast the high - est place. A - men.

2 I marvel not when I am told—
 So pure a maid wert thou—
 An angel should his glorious head
 Before thee humbly bow;
 For ere he left the throne of God
 To look upon thy face,
 He learned that thou alone shouldst be
 The "Virgin, Full of Grace."

3 In thee their comfort and their joy
 The poor and lowly find;
 Sweet refuge and repose thou art
 To weary heart and mind.

All children love thee, and in haste
 Will crowd about thy feet,
 And on thine altar love to place
 Their gifts of flowers sweet.

Then, Mother dear, my vows receive,
 And, when this life is done,
 I'll find them in the Sacred Heart
 Of Jesus, thy dear Son.

For thou his Mother art, and mine,
 And thus my love for thee,
 Through his same gift of grace divine,
 The like with his shall be. Amen.

Month of Mary.

Hail, Mary, Virgin blessed.

Hymn 135.

76s. Double.

Refrain.

1. Hail, Ma - ry, Vir - gin bless - ed, Our love - ly Queen of May!

Fine.

O spot - less, bless - ed La - dy, We praise thy name to - day.

Thy chil - dren hum - bly bend - ing A - round thy shrine so dear, With heart and voice as - cend - ing, Sweet Ma - ry, hear our prayer. A - men.

- 2 Behold earth's blossoms springing
In beauteous form and hue;
All nature gladly bringing
Her sweetest charms to you.
We'll gather fresh bright flowers
To bind our fair Queen's brow;
From gay and verdant bowers
We haste to crown thee now.
- 3 The rose and lily wreathing
The humble violet fair,
To thee their perfume breathing,
With sweetness scent the air.

- The mignonette, the lilac,
And sweet forget-me-not,
The eglantine and myrtle,
To grace your wreath we've brought.
- 4 The heliotrope, sweet type of love,
And star of Bethlehem, too,
The lily of the valley,
Complete the wreath for you.
And now, our blessed Mother,
Smile on our festal day;
Accept our wreath of flowers,
And be our Queen of May. Amen.

The Blessed Virgin.

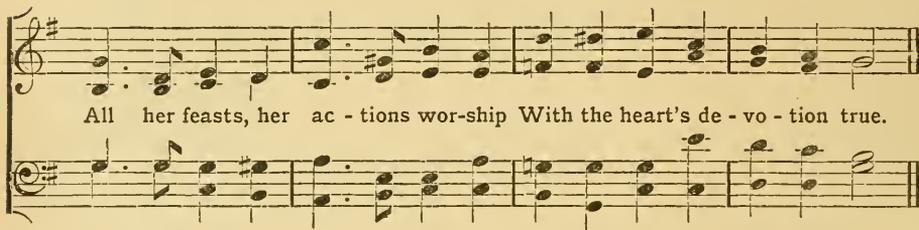

Daily, daily sing to Mary.

Hymn 136.

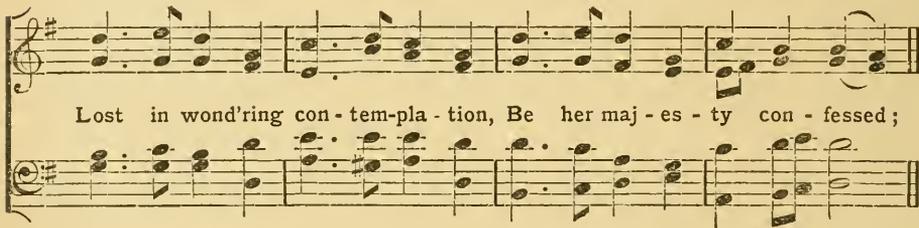

87s. Double.

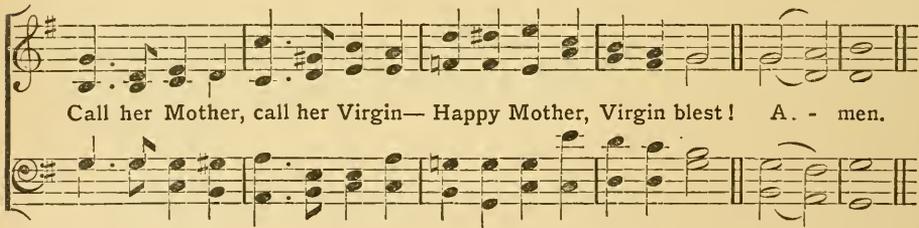

1. Dai - ly, dai - ly sing to Ma - ry; Sing, my soul, her prais - es due;

All her feasts, her ac - tions wor - ship With the heart's de - vo - tion true.

Lost in wond'ring con - tem - pla - tion, Be her maj - es - ty con - fessed;

Call her Mother, call her Virgin— Happy Mother, Virgin blest! A - men.

2 She is mighty to deliver;
Call her, trust her lovingly;
When the tempest rages round thee,
She will calm the troubled sea.
Gifts of heaven she has given,
Noble Lady, to our race;
She, the Queen, who decks her subjects
With the light of God's own grace.

3 All my senses, heart, affections,
Strive to sound her glory forth;
Spread abroad the sweet memorials
Of the Virgin's priceless worth.
Sing in songs of praise unending,
Sing the world's majestic Queen;
Weary not, nor faint in telling
All the gifts she gives to men. Amen.

Hail, Queen of Heaven!

Hymn 137.

8s. Six lines.

1. Hail, Queen of Heaven, the Ocean Star, Guide of the wand'rer here be-low!

Thrown on life's surge, we claim thy care, Save us from per - il and from woe.

Moth-er of Christ, Star of the Sea, Pray for the wand'rer, pray for me ;

Mother of Christ, Star of the Sea, Pray for the wand'rer, pray for me. A - men.

2 O gentle, chaste, and spotless Maid!
We sinners make our prayers to thee;
Remind thy Son that He has paid
The price of our iniquity.
Virgin most pure, Star of the Sea,
Pray for the sinner, pray for me.

3 Sojourners in this vale of tears,
To thee, blest Advocate, we cry;
Pity our sorrows, calm our fears,
And soothe with hope our misery.
Refuge in grief, Star of the Sea,
Pray for the mourner, pray for me.

4 And while to Him Who reigns above,
In Godhead One, in Persons Three,
The source of life, of grace, of love,
Homage we pay on bended knee;
Do thou, bright Queen, Star of the Sea,
Pray for thy children, pray for me. Amen.

Month of Mary.

2 Teach, O teach us, Holy Mother,
How to conquer every sin;
How to love and help each other,
How the prize of life to win.

3 Help the poor, the broken-hearted,
Help the sick, all sinners free,
Help the faithful souls departed,
Bring us all to heaven and thee.

4 Now the evening shades are falling,
And the night is coming on;
Bless thy children, to thee calling,
Guard and save us, every one. Amen.

Hail, thou first-begotten Daughter!

Hymn 139.

87s. 77.

1. Hail, thou first - be - got - ten Daughter Of th'Al-might - y Father's love;

Temple of e - ter - nal glo - ry, Pure and spot - less tur - tle - dove; Mistress of the earth and skies, Hail, thou Queen of Par - a - dise! A - men.

2 Hail to thee, whose deep foundations
On the holy hills are laid:
Joy of endless generations,
Loved before the world was made:
Treasure in salvation's scheme,
Clothed in dignity supreme.

3 Who can count the starry jewels
Set about thy crown of light?
Who can estimate thy greatness,
Who can guess thy glory's height?
All that is of glory known
Thine, but not for thee alone.

4 Thine the power for us, poor sinners,
Grace and pardon to implore
Of thy Son, whose Love hath crowned thee
"Help of Christians" evermore.
Through thee God's most loving plan
Gave a Saviour unto man. Amen.

The Blessed Virgin.

This is the image of the Queen.

Hymn 140.

C. M. Double.

1. This is the im - age of the Queen Who reigns in bliss a - bove ;
 Of her who is the hope of men, Whom men and an - gels love !
 Most ho - ly Ma - ry, at thy feet I bend a suppliant knee ; Dear
 Mother of my God, I pray, Do thou re - member me ! A - men.

- 2 The sacred homage that we pay
 To Mary's image here,
 To Mary's self at once ascends,
 Above the starry sphere.
 Most holy Mary, at thy feet
 I bend a suppliant knee ;
 In all my joy, in all my pain,
 Do thou remember me !
- 3 How fair soever be the form
 Which here your eyes behold,
 Its beauty is by Mary's self
 Excelled a thousand-fold.

- Most holy Mary, at thy feet
 I bend a suppliant knee ;
 In my temptations each and all,
 Do thou remember me !
- 4 Sweet are the flow'rets we have culled
 This image to adorn ;
 But sweeter far is Mary's self,
 That rose without a thorn.
 Most holy Mary, at thy feet
 I bend a suppliant knee ;
 When on the bed of death I lie,
 Do thou remember me. Amen.

Henceforward all my name shall bless.
Magnificat!

3 Magnificat! Praise God alone!
The mercy of my Saviour own;
For He hath mighty wonders done.
Magnificat!

4 Magnificat! His wondrous grace
Is manifest from race to race
Of them who fear before his face.
Magnificat!

5 Magnificat! He hath brought down
The proud man from his lofty throne,
And lifted up the humble one.
Magnificat!

6 Magnificat! Grace for the poor!
The poor who plead at Mercy's door;
The scornful rich shall have no more.
Magnificat!

7 Magnificat! In me behold
Fulfilled the promises of old
To Abr'ham and the Fathers told
Magnificat!

8 Magnificat! The song of praise

One God throughout eternal days!
Magnificat! Amen.

Sing, sing, ye angel bands.

Hymn 142.

6s. Six lines.

1. Sing, sing, ye an - gel bands, All beau - ti - ful and bright; For high - er still, and high - er, Through fields of star - ry light, Your calando.

Vir - gin Queen as - cends, Like the sweet moon at night. A - men.

- 2 O happy angels! look,
How beautiful she is!
See! Jesus bears her up!
Her hands are locked in his.
Oh! who can tell the height
Of that fair Mother's bliss?
- 3 On through the countless stars
Proceeds the bright array;
And Love Divine comes forth
To light her on the way,
Through gloom of earthly night,
Into celestial day.

- 4 Swifter and swifter grows
That wondrous flight of love,
As though her heart were drawn
More veh'mently above;
While joyful angels part
A pathway for the Dove.
- 5 Hark! hark! through highest heaven
What sounds of mystic mirth!
Mary, by God proclaimed
The Queen of spotless birth.
And diademed with stars
The lowliest of the earth,

- 6 And shall I lose thee then—
Lose my sweet right to thee?
Oh! no; the Angels' Queen,
Man's Mother still will be;
And thou upon thy throne
Wilt keep thy love for me. Amen.

The Assumption.

Ascend, ascend, Imperial Queen.

Hymn 143.

Ss. Six lines.

The musical score is written for soprano and bass voices. It consists of four systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are: 1. As-cend, as-cend, Im-per-ial Queen! As-cend, and plead the cause of men! As-cend, and reign up-on the throne Pre-des-ti-nat-ed thine a-lone. As-cend, where none be-fore have trod, As-cend, the Moth-er of thy God! A-men.

2 O how for thee the Angels sigh,
Eager to waft thee to the sky!
Too long for them the hours appear,
That strive to hold thee captive here,
Where, quench'd in mists of earth below
Thy rays of glory dimly show.

3 Ascend, thou purest one of earth,
A child of grace before thy birth;
Whose path from grace to grace ascends,
And in supremest glory ends.
Ascend, thou Daughter of the King,
We join the angels as they sing.

4 Ascend, ascend, Imperial Queen!
Forsake this liminary scene;
Forsake this lower, darksome place,
Which guilt and misery deface;
A higher world invites thee on
To splendor and dominion.

5 Ascend, ascend, Imperial Queen!
Ascend, and plead the cause of men!
Ascend, and reign upon the throne
Predestinated thine alone.
Ascend, where none before have trod,
Ascend, the Mother of thy God! Amen.

The Blessed Virgin.

Jerusalem, Jerusalem!

Hymn 144.

C. M. Double.

1. Je - ru - sa - lem, Je - ru - sa - lem! A - rise thee now, and shine ;
 Put on, put on thy pur - ple robe And di - a - dem di - vine :
 For by a wo - man's fee - ble arm The Lord hath fought for thee, And in the cause of his e - lect Hath tri - umphed glo - rious - ly. A - men.

2 Jerusalem, Jerusalem!

Thy streets are paved with gold ;
 Thy pearly halls and palaces
 Are glorious to behold ;
 Thy walls of jasper are inlaid
 With every precious gem ;
 How pure, how lovely is the sight
 Of our Jerusalem !

3 Jerusalem, Jerusalem!

No tear in thee is known ;
 Thy bright and fragrant courts were
 For happiness alone : [made

The Lord alone thy Temple is,
 And calls thee by his Name ;
 The Lamb alone is all the light
 Of our Jerusalem !

4 Jerusalem, Jerusalem!

Thou City of the skies !
 Dear City of our King and God ;
 Dear Object of our sighs !
 How blest, how blest are thy abodes,
 And those who dwell in them.
 Thrice welcome here, O Virgin dear,
 To thy Jerusalem! Amen.

The Immaculate Conception.

Hail, Queen of the Heavens!

Hymn 145.

115.

1. Hail, Queen of the Heavens! hail, Mis-tress of earth! Hail, Vir - gin most pure, of im - mac - u - late birth! Clear Star of the Morning, in beau - ty en - shrined, O La - dy, make speed to the help of man - kind. A - men.

- 2 Hail, Virgin most wise! hail, Deity's shrine,
With seven fair pillars and table divine!
Preserved from the guilt which has come on us all,
Exempt in the womb from the taint of the fall.
- 3 O new Star of Jacob! of angels the Queen!
O Gate of the Saints! O Mother of men!
O terrible as the embattled array,
Be thou of the faithful the refuge and stay.
- 4 Well fitting it was that a Son so Divine
Should preserve from all touch of original sin,
Nor suffer by smallest defect to be stain'd
That Mother whom He for Himself had ordain'd.
- 5 Hail, Mother most pure! hail, Virgin renown'd!
Hail, Queen with twelve stars as a diadem crown'd!
Above all the angels in glory untold,
Standing next to the King in a vesture of gold.
- 6 These praises and prayers I lay at thy feet,
O Virgin of virgins! O Mary most sweet!
Be thou my true guide through this pilgrimage here,
And stand by my side when my death draweth near. Amen.

And an angel, o'er him bending,
Makes the winged night flee afar;
Bursts the iron chains asunder,
And removes the massy bar.

3 We in prison-chains are sleeping,
Chains of sin which angels see;
Dimmest night our souls is steeping:
Christ, our light, our liberty,
Break Thou all our chains and fetters,
Lighten us, and make us free!

Let endless praises flow. Amen. |

Lead us, great teacher Paul.

Hymn 153.

10 10 10 12.

1. Lead us, great teacher Paul, in wis - dom's ways, And lift our hearts with thine to heaven's high throne; Till faith beholds the clear me - ri - dian blaze, And sun - like in the soul reigns char - i - ty a - lone. A - - men.

- 2 Praise, blessing, majesty, through endless days,
Be to the Trinity immortal given;
Who in pure Unity profoundly sways
Eternally alike all things in earth and heaven. Amen.

St. Paul.

We sing the glorious conquest.

Hymn 154.

76s. Double.

1. We sing the glo-rious con-quest Be-fore Da-mas-cus' gate,

When Saul, the Church's spoil-er, Came breath-ing threats and hate.

The ravening wolf rushed for-ward Full ear-ly to the prey; But lo! the Shepherd met him, And bound him fast to-day. A-men.

- 2 O Glory most excelling,
That smote across his path!
O Light that pierced and blinded
The zealot in his wrath!
O Voice that spake within him
The calm, reprov-ing word!
O Love that sought and held him
The bondman of the Lord!
- 3 O Wisdom, ordering all things
In order strong and sweet,
What nobler spoil was ever
Cast at the Victor's feet?

- What wiser master-builder
E'er wrought at thine employ
Than he, till now so furious
Thy building to destroy?
- 4 Lord, teach thy Church the lesson,
Still in her darkest hour
Of weakness and of danger
To trust thy hidden power.
Thy grace by ways mysterious
The wrath of man can bind,
And in thy boldest foeman
Thy chosen Saint can find. Amen.

St. Michael.

Thee, O Christ, the Father's Splendor.

Hymn 155.

87s. Six lines.

1. Thee, O Christ, the Fa-ther's Splen-dor, Life and Vir-tue of the heart, In the pres-ence of the an-gels Sing we now with tune-ful art: Meet-ly in al-ter-nate cho-rus, Bear-ing our re-spon-sive part. A-men.

2 Thus we praise with veneration
All the armies of the sky;
Chiefly him, the warrior Primate
Of celestial chivalry:
Michael, who in princely virtue
Cast Abaddon from on high.

3 By whose watchful care repelling,
King of everlasting grace!
Every ghostly adversary,
All things evil, all things base;
Grant us of thine only goodness
In thy Paradise a place.

4 Laud and honor to the Father,
Laud and honor to the Son,
Laud and honor to the Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One:
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

The Holy Angels.

Hymn 156.

Hark! hark! my soul.

II IOS. 9 II.

1. Hark! hark! my soul, an - gel - ic songs are swelling O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore : How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling Of that new life when sin shall be no more! An-gels of Je - sus, an-gels of light! Sing - ing to welcome the pil-grims of the night. A - men.

Refrain.

- 2 Darker than night life's shadows fall around us,
And, like benighted men, we miss our mark ;
God hides Himself, and grace hath scarcely found us,
Ere Death finds out his victims in the dark.
- 3 Onward we go ; for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come ;"
And through the dark its echoes sweetly ring,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.
- 4 Rest comes at length ; though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn and darksome night be past ;
All journeys end in welcomes to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

St. Stephen.

5 Cheer up, my soul, Faith's moonbeam's softly glisten
 Upon the breast of Life's most troubled sea ;
 And it will cheer thy drooping heart to listen
 To those glad songs which angels mean for thee.

6 Angels, sing on, your faithful watches keeping ;
 Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above ;
 While we toil on, and soothe ourselves with weeping,
 Till life's long night shall break in endless love. Amen.

St. Stephen.

Hymn 157. 7s. Double.
 Jesu, Lord, thy praise we sing.

I. { Je - su, Lord, Thy praise we sing, Thou the Martyr's Crown and King, }
 { Who dost raise a - bove the skies All who earth and sin de - spise: }

Hear us now, and as we tell How thy Mar - tyr Steph - en fell,

Grant the prayer thy servants pray, Wash our stain of guilt a - way. A - men.

2 'Twas thy Spirit from above
 Filled his heart with strength and love ;
 First to own his Lord in death,
 First to gain the crown of faith ;
 Gazing upward to the skies,
 With his parting breath he cries,
 Jesu, Lord, my soul receive ;
 Jesu, Lord, my foes forgive.

3 Lord, for him thy Name we bless,
 Grant to us like holiness ;
 May we ever live to Thee,
 And in death have victory :
 Then through ages all along,
 This shall be our endless song,
 Praise the Father, and the Son,
 And the Spirit, Three in One. Amen.

St. Mary Magdalen.

Thou That art celestial Light.

Hymn 158.

7s.

1. Thou That art ce - les - tial Light, As Thou didst on Ma - ry look Thou her love didst kin - dle bright, And the i - cy spell is broke. A - men.

- 2 Pierced with love behold her fly
To anoint those blessèd Feet;
Bathe in tears; with tresses dry;
With unceasing kisses greet.
- 3 Fearless at the Cross she stands;
Pensive watches by the Stone;
Nought she recks yon ruffian bands;
Love has bid all fear begone.

- 4 Jesu, Very Love Thou art;
Cleanse us from our guilty stain;
Thou with grace canst fill the heart
Thou lost heaven restore again.
- 5 To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit ever Blest,
As of old, so aye shall run
Hymns of praise that never rest.

Amen.

Since my life from Life is parted.

Hymn 159.

1. Since my life from Life is part - ed, I would live no long - er;

Who sur - vives when broken - heart - ed, Is to life a stran - ger.

St. Cecilia.

rall.

One that lives by oth-er's breath, Di-eth al- so by his death. A-men.

2 While He lived my life was beaming,
 In the sun of happiness;
 Now He's dead this world is seeming
 But a world of heaviness.
 Oh! let love my life remove,
 Since I live not where I love.

3 Here I weep, alone, forsaken,
 For my Love is gone away;
 Did I know who had Him taken

I would follow night and day.
 Then would count my life no gain,
 If I could with Him remain.

4 O true Life! since Thou hast left me,
 Mortal life is tedious;
 Death it is to live without Thee,
 Death of all most odious.
 Turn again, or else deny
 Life to live, that I may die. Amen.

St. Cecilia.

Let the deep organ swell the lay.

Hymn 160.

L. M.

1. Let the deep or - gan swell the lay, In hon - or of this fes - tive day;

Let the harmonious choirs proclaim Cæ-cil-ia's ev - er - blessed name. A-men.

2 Rome gave the virgin-martyr birth,
 Whose holy name hath filled the earth;
 And from the early dawn of youth,
 She fixed her heart on God and truth.

3 Then from the world's bewildering strife,
 In peace she spent her holy life—
 Teaching the organ to combine
 With voice, to praise her Spouse divine.

4 Cæcilia, with a twofold crown
 Adorned in heaven, we pray look down
 Upon thy fervent votaries here,
 And hearken to their humble prayer.

5 O Saviour, may our portion be
 With those who gave themselves to
 Through all eternity to sing [Thee,
 All praise to Thee, the Martyr's King.

Amen.

From Egypt lately come.

Hymn 161.

6686 4477.

1. From E - gypt late - ly come, Where death and dark-ness reign, We seek our new, our bet - ter home, Where we our rest shall gain.

Refrain.

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! We are on our way to God, We are on our way to God! A - men.

2 To Canaan's sacred bound
We haste with songs of joy,
Where peace and liberty are found,
And sweets that never cloy.

3 There sin and sorrow cease,
And every conflict's o'er;
There we shall dwell in endless peace,
And never hunger more.

4 There in celestial strains
Enraptured millions sing;
There love in every bosom reigns,
For God Himself is King.

5 We soon shall join the throng,
Their pleasures we shall share;
And sing the everlasting song
With all the ransomed there.

6 How sweet the prospect is!
It cheers the pilgrim's breast;
We're journeying through a wilderness,
But soon shall gain our rest. Amen.

Hark! the sound of holy voices.

Hymn 162.

87s. Double.

1. Hark! the sound of ho - ly voic - es Chant - ing, at the crys - tal sea,

Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia, Lord, to Thee! Mul - ti - white ap - par - el, hold - ing Palms of vic - tory in their hands. A - men.

- 2 Patriarch and holy Prophet,
Who prepared the way of Christ,
King, Apostle, Saint, Confessor,
Martyr, and Evangelist,
Saintly Maiden, godly Matron,
Widows who have watched to prayer,
Joined in holy concert, singing
To the Lord of all, are there.
- 3 They have come from tribulation,
And have washed their robes in blood,
Washed them in the blood of Jesus:
Tried they were, and firm they stood;
Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented,
Sawn asunder, slain with sword,
They have conquered death and Satan,
By the might of Christ the Lord.

- 4 Marching with thy Cross their banner,
They have triumphed following
Thee, the Captain of salvation,
Thee, their Saviour and their King:
Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffered;
Gladly, Lord, with Thee they died;
And by death to life immortal
They were born and glorified.
- 5 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
Now they walk in golden light;
Now they drink, as from a river,
Holy bliss and infinite:
Love and peace they taste for ever,
And all truth and knowledge see
In the Beatific Vision
Of the Blessed Trinity. Amen.

Who for us the victory won,
Who wast slain for our salvation,
Thee we praise, Eternal Son.
Mary leads the sacred story,
Mary with her Heavenly Child,
Sharer with Him now in glory,
Maid and Mother undefiled.
- 3 Angels next in due gradation
Of their nine-fold ministry,
Hymn the Father of creation,
Maker of the stars on high.

- John, whose warning voice hath sounded,
More than prophet owned to be;
Patriarchs with seers surrounded
Swell the hymn of victory.
- 4 All their earthly toils completed,
Hark! the Twelve the anthem swell,
And on thrones of glory seated
Judge the tribes of Israel.
They who nobly died believing,
Martyrs purpled in their gore,
Crowns of life by death receiving,
Rest in joy for evermore.

For the Faithful Departed.

Not in anger, patient God.

Hymn 165.

76s. 3366.

1. Not in an - ger, pa - tient God, Not in an - ger smite them; They would per - ish if thy rod Just - ly would re - quite them. They are nought; Sin hath brought, Lord, thy wrath up - on them, Yet have mer - cy on... them. A - men.

2 Weary are they of the pain,
 Weary with their sorrow;
 Sighing, longing to obtain
 Release on the morrow.
 Why dost Thou tarry now?
 Come, sweet Lord, befriend them,
 Help in pity send them.

3 O long-suffering Father! hear
 The prayers from earth ascending,
 Pleading for those souls so dear,
 On Thee all depending
 For release, rest and peace—
 Wilt Thou friendless leave them,
 And of hope bereave them?

4 No! the power to set them free
 Unto prayer is given;
 Wherefore grant them liberty—
 Take, sweet Lord, to Heaven
 Souls thy Cross hath saved from loss,
 Hearts on fire all burning—
 Only for Thee yearning.

5 Hark, O God! to hymns we raise
 Here, and they in Heaven!
 And Thee, the Son and Spirit praise
 Who their bonds have riven.
 Evermore we adore
 Thee, whose grace hath stirred us,
 And whose pity heard us. Amen.

2 Here we in depths of darkness lie,
Poor exiles from our home on high;
But bright shall dawn thine endless day,
And chase our gloom away.

3 That day Thou hast in store with Thee,
Resplendent with thy majesty,
But faintly shadowed here below
By sun in noontide glow.

4 Why lingers, then, the golden dawn?
O why delay, thou glorious morn?

When shall we cast this flesh aside,
And in that light abide?

5 Our souls, O God, would fain take wing
From out their dark enveloping;
And see Thee, praise Thee, and adore
And love Thee evermore.

6 Blest Three in One, Thou Source of grace,
O fit us for that happy place;
And guide us safe through this our night
To see thine endless light. Amen.

Hymn 167.

O day of rest and gladness.

76s. Double.

1. O day of rest and glad - ness, O day of joy and light,

O balm of care and sad - ness, Most beau - ti - ful, most bright ;

On thee, the high and low - ly, Be - fore the eter - nal throne, Sing

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, To God the Three in One. A - men.

2 On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth;
On thee for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee our Lord victorious
The Spirit sent from heaven;
And thus on thee most glorious
A triple light was given.

3 Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry dreary sand;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land;
A day of sweet refection,
A day of holy love,
A day of resurrection
From earth to things above.

Sunday.

4 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly Manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls;
Where Gospel-light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

5 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the Rest remaining
To spirits of the blest;
To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
To Thee, blest Three in One. Amen.

Saviour, again to thy dear Name we raise.

Hymn 168.

108.

i. Sav - iour, a - gain to thy dear Name we raise With one ac - cord our parting hymn of praise ; Once more we bless Thee ere our worship cease, Then low - ly kneeling, wait thy word of peace. A - men.

2 Grant us thy peace upon our homeward way ;
With Thee begun, with Thee shall end the day ;
Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon thy Name.

3 Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the coming night,
Turn Thou for us its darkness into light ;
From harm and danger keep thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to Thee.

4 Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life,
Our balm in sorrow, and our peace in strife ;
Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace. Amen.

2 That saw primæval darkness break,
And that more glorious life awake
That lasteth evermore;
That saw hell's legion prostrate fall,
And Christ triumphant over all
His own to heaven restore.

3 This day the peace that flows from heaven
Was unto the Apostles given,
When doors were closed at night;
This day the Holy Spirit's flame
Upon the Church's teachers came,
And filled their souls with light.

4 So let us come with joy to praise
Our God Who blesses all our days
With grace, and peace, and love:
So when our day of life is done,
The crown of life that we have won
We may receive above. Amen.

Sunday.

Glory to the Glorious One.

Hymn 170.

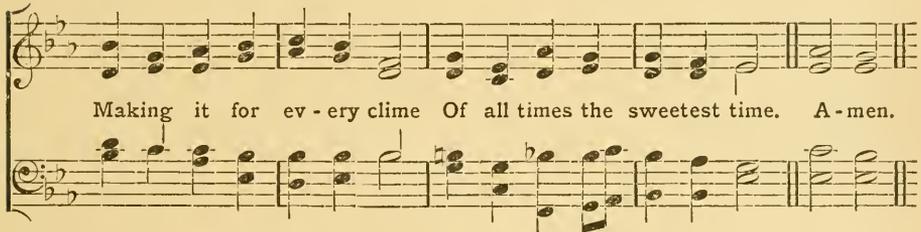

7s. Six lines.

1. Glo - ry to the Glo - rious One, Good and great, our God a - lone,

Who this day hath glo - ri - fied, First and best of all be - side,

Making it for ev - ery clime Of all times the sweetest time. A - men.

2 On this day the Son of God
Left his three days' dark abode;
In the greatness of his might,
Rising to the upper light.
On this day the Church puts on Glory, beauty, joy, and crown.

3 On this day of days the Lord,
Faithful to his ancient word,
On his burning chariot borne,
Shall in majesty return.
King of kings, He comes in might
From his heavenly home of light.

4 Coming with his Cross to save,
With his Cross to spoil the grave,
He shall speak and earth shall hear;
Rending rocks shall quake with fear;
And the waking dead shall come
From the silence of the tomb.

5 Shaken heavens and shattered earth
Then shall rise to second birth!
Then the glory to his own!
Then the kingdom and the crown!
Then the sinner's hope shall close,
Then begin his endless woes.

6 Death, it cometh,—oh beware!
Judgment cometh,—oh prepare!
Steadfast, steadfast let us stand,
For the Judge is nigh at hand;
Steadfast let us rest at night,
Steadfast wake at morning light.

7 Honor, might, and glory be,
Gracious God and Lord, to Thee!
To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit, Three in One;
Thus we now thy mercy praise,
And through everlasting days. Amen.

Our failing strength renew:
On weary brain and troubled breast
Shed Thou thy freshening dew.

3 This is the day of Peace!
Lord, now thy word fulfill,
Bid Thou the blasts of discord cease;
The waves of strife be still.

4 This is the day of Prayer!
Let earth to heaven draw near:
Lift up our hearts to seek Thee there;

And wake dead souls to love and praise,
O Vanquisher of death! Amen.

Morning.

Morning calls us to awake,
Bids us haste to pay our vows,
And our meek confessions make.

- 5 Jesu, Master, when we fall
Turn on us thy healing Face;
With that look our souls recall
Unto penitential grace:
- 6 Sin's deep wounds in us repair;
In our darkened bosoms shine:

Morning hymns of glory thine.

Blest Trinity,
O Holy, Holy, Holy!
- 3 The Judge will on a sudden come,
To bring to light
The deeds of each, that secret lie;
But unalarmed we still will cry
Amid the fright,
At dead of night,
O Holy, Holy, Holy! Amen.

Occasional Hymns.

Come, my soul, thou must be waking.

Hymn 174.

8478 47.

1. Come, my soul, thou must be wak - ing: Now is break - ing O'er the earth an - oth - er day: Come to Him, Who made this splendor;

See thou ren - der All thy fee - ble strength can pay. A - men.

2 Gladly hail the sun returning;
 Ready burning
 Be the incense of thy powers:
 For the night is safely ended;
 God hath tended
 With his care thy helpless hours.

3 Pray that He may prosper ever
 Each endeavor,
 When the aim is good and true;
 But that He may ever thwart thee,
 And convert thee,
 When thou evil wouldst pursue.

4 Think that He thy ways beholdeth;
 He unfoldeth
 Every fault that lurks within:
 He the hidden shame glossed over
 Can discover,
 And discern each deed of sin.

5 Mayest thou on life's last morrow,
 Free from sorrow,
 Pass away in slumber sweet;
 And, released from death's dark sadness,
 Rise in gladness,
 That far brighter Sun to greet.

6 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
 Light refuse not,
 But his Spirit's voice obey;
 Thou with Him shalt dwell, beholding
 Light enfolding
 All things in unclouded day.

7 Glory, honor, exaltation,
 Adoration,
 Be to the Eternal One:
 To the Father, Son, and Spirit,
 Laud and merit,
 While unending ages run. Amen.

Thy light and truth, and guide us onward still ;
Still let thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
And lead us safely to thy Holy Hill.

And shades of evil from its splendors flee,
Safe may we rise, this earth's dark vale forsaking,
Through all the long bright day to dwell with Thee.

O Father, Son, and Spirit, ever Blest ;
Whose glory by the heaven and earth is chanted,
Whose Name by men and angels is confest. Amen.

Sun of the angel-host;
With God the Eternal Father,
And God the Holy Ghost. Amen.

| 2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we,
Oppressed with various ills, draw near :
What if thy form we cannot see ?
We know and feel that Thou art here. 3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel :
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved thee well,
And some have lost the love they had ; 4 And some have found the world is vain,
Yet from the world they break not free ;
And some have friends who give them
pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in Thee ; | 5 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin ;
And they, who fain would love Thee best,
Are conscious most of wrong within. 6 O Saviour Christ, Thou too art Man,
Thou hast been troubled, tempted,
tried ;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide. 7 Thy touch still has its ancient power ;
No word from Thee can fruitless fall ;
Hear in this solemn evening hour,
And in thy mercy heal us all. Amen. |

Occasional Hymns.

Gladdening Light.

Hymn 179.

87s.

1. Gladdening Light, the bright Forth-shewing Of the Fa-ther's maj-es-ty,

rit.
Blest, e-ter-nal in the heav-ens; Je-sus Christ, we worship Thee. A-men.

2 Now the sun to rest is sinking;
Stars above us shed their rays;
Thee with thine Eternal Father
And the Holy Ghost we praise.

3 Worthy art Thou of the anthems
Holiest lips can raise to Thee,
Son of God; for Thou hast brought us
Life and immortality.

4 Pardon all our past transgressions,
Give us strength for days to come;
Guide and guard us with thy blessing
Till thine angels bear us home.

5 Therefore shall the whole creation
With glad hymns for evermore
Praise and laud and magnify Thee,
And thy glorious Name adore. Amen.

Now the day is over.

Hymn 180.

65s.

1. Now the day is o-ver, Night is draw-ing nigh;

Shadows of the eve-ning Steal a-cross the sky. A-men.

Evening.

- 2 Jesu, grant the weary
Calm and sweet repose;
With thy tenderest blessings
May our eyelids close.
- 3 Grant to little children
Vision bright of Thee:
Guard the sailors tossing
On the angry sea.
- 4 Comfort every sufferer,
Watching late in pain,
Those who plan some evil
From their sins restrain.

- 5 Through the long night-watches,
May thine angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Standing round my bed.
- 6 When the morning wakens,
Then may I arise
Pure, and fresh and sinless
In thy holy eyes.
- 7 Glory to the Father,
Glory to the Son,
And to Thee, Blest Spirit,
Whilst all ages run. Amen.

Hymn 181.

Sun of my soul.

L. M.

1. Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear, It is not night if Thou be near; O may no earth-born cloud arise To hide Thee from thy ser- vant's eyes! A - - men.

- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.
- 3 Abide with me from morn to eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wandering child of thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,

- Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.
- 5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.
- 6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere thro' the world our way we take;
Till in the ocean of thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

Amen.

Occasional Hymns.

Hymn 182. The day is gently sinking. 10s. Six lines.

r. The day is gen-tly sink-ing to a close, Faint-er and yet more faint the sunlight glows; O Brightness of thy Father's Glo-ry, Thou, E-ter-nal Light of Light, be with us now; Where Thou art present, darkness cannot be: . Midnight is glorious noon, O Lord, with Thee. A - men.

- 2 Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end,
Onward to darkness and to death we tend;
O Conqueror of the grave, be Thou our Guide,
Be Thou our Light in death's dark eventide;
Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.
- 3 Thou, Who in darkness walking didst appear
Upon the waves, and thy disciples cheer,
Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms assail,
And human hopes and human succors fail:
When all is dark, may we behold Thee nigh,
And hear thy voice, "Fear not, for it is I."
- 4 The weary world is mouldering to decay,
Its glories wane, its pageants fade away;
In that last sunset, when the stars shall fall,
May we arise, awakened by thy call,
With Thee, O Lord, for ever to abide
In that blest day which has no eventide. Amen.

Evening.

Lord, ever show thy blessed Face.

Hymn 183.

86s. 448.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of four systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a bass clef staff. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are: "1. Lord, ev - er show thy bless - ed Face, Though down - ward sinks the sun; Stand still in heaven, with looks of grace, Though he his course hath run; A - bove the height, In glo - ry bright, Still shines in Thee un - fad - ing light. A - men." The word "ritard." is written above the piano staff in the fourth system.

2 As speeds the moon her silent way
 Outpouring softer beams;
 So shed on us a gentle ray,
 The peace of holy dreams;
 That thoughts snow-white,
 May hallow night,
 No longer dark beneath thy light.

3 When calmly laid in quiet rest,
 Sweet slumber on our eyes,
 Let angels hover round each breast,
 Our guard till morning rise:
 Sin takes to flight,
 And drops the fight;
 For Thou art peace as well as light.

4 As sighs our last departing breath,
 And friends in sorrow weep,
 Oh, grant us, Lord, a tranquil death,
 Like this, a restful sleep;
 Then, through thy might
 Raise us all-bright,
 To view Thee robed in quenchless light. Amen.

Hymn 184.

The day is past and gone.

S. M. Double.

1. The day is past and gone, Great God, we bow to Thee; A - gain, as shades of night steal on, To Thee for ref-uge flee. Our sun is sink - ing now, Our day is al - most o'er; O Sun of Righteousness, do Thou Shine on us ev - er - more! A - - men.

2 O when shall that day come,
 Ne'er sinking in the west:
 That country and that holy home,
 Where none shall break our rest?
 Where all things shall be peace,
 And pleasure without end,
 And golden harps, that never cease,
 With joyous hymns shall blend;

3 Where we, preserved beneath
 The shelter of thy wing,
 For evermore thy praise shall breathe,
 And of thy mercy sing;
 And with the angel-host
 Praise, honor, and adore
 Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 One God for evermore. Amen.

Evening.

Abide with me.

Hymn 185.

108.

1. A - bide with me, fast falls the e - ven - tide ; The dark-ness deep-ens :

Lord, with me a - bide : When oth - er help - ers fail, and comforts flee,

Help of the help - less, O a - bide with me. A - men.

- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day ;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away ;
Change and decay in all around I see ;
O Thou, Who changest not, abide with me.
- 3 I need thy presence every passing hour ;
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power ?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be ?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.
- 4 I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless ;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness ;
Where is death's sting ; where, grave, thy victory ?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.
- 5 Hold Thou thy Cross before my closing eyes ;
Shine through the gloom, and draw me to the skies ;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee ;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen.

Occasional Hymns.

The day is past and over.

Hymn 186.

76s. 88.

1. The day is past and o - ver; All thanks, O

Lord, to Thee! We pray Thee now, that sin - less The hours of dark may be: . . . O Je - su, keep us in thy sight, And save us through the com - ing night. A - men.

2 The joys of day are over;
 We lift our hearts to Thee;
 And ask Thee, that offenceless
 The hours of dark may be:
 O Jesu, make their darkness light,
 And save us through the coming night.

3 The toils of day are over;
 We raise our hymn to Thee;
 And ask, that free from peril,
 The hours of dark may be:
 O Jesu, keep us in thy sight,
 And guard us through the coming night.

4 Our eyes enlighten, Saviour,
 Or sleep in death shall we;
 And he, our wakeful tempter,
 Shall cry triumphantly:
 "He could not make their darkness light,
 Nor guard them thro' the hours of night."

5 Be Thou our soul's preserver,
 O God, for Thou dost know
 How many are the perils
 Through which we have to go;
 O loving Jesu, hear our call,
 And guard and save us from them all.

Evening.

God, That madest earth and heaven.

Hymn 187.

84s. 8884.

1. God, That mad - est earth and heav - en, Dark - ness and light ;

Who the day for toil hast giv - en, For rest the night ;

May thine an - gel-guards de - fend us, Slumber sweet thy mer - cy send us,

Ho - ly dreams and hopes at - tend us, This live-long night. A - men.

2 Guard us waking, guard us sleeping ;
And when we die,
May we in thy mighty keeping
All peaceful lie ;
When the last dread call shall wake us,]
Do not Thou, O God, forsake us,
But to reign in glory take us
With Thee on high. Amen.

Occasional Hymns.

The radiant morn hath passed away.

Hymn 188.

8884.

1. The ra - diant morn hath passed away, And spent too soon her gold - en store ;

The shadows of de - part - ing day Creep on once more. A - men.

2 Our life is but a fading dawn,
Its glorious noon is quickly past ;
Lead us, O Christ, when all is gone,
Safe home at last.

4 Where life, and light, and joy, and peace
In undivided empire reign,
And thronging angels never cease
Their deathless strain.

3 Oh, by thy soul-inspiring grace
Uplift our hearts to realms on high ;
Help us to look to that bright place
Beyond the sky ;

5 Where saints are clothed in spotless ^{[white,}
And evening shadows never fall,
Where Thou, Eternal Light of light
Art Lord of all. Amen.

The sun is sinking fast.

Hymn 189.

6466.

1. The sun is sink - ing fast, The day - light dies ; Let love a - wake, and pay Her eve - ning sac - ri - fice. A - men.

Evening.

- 2 As Christ upon the Cross
His Head reclined,
And to his Father's hands
His parting soul resigned;
- 3 So now herself my soul
Would wholly give
Into his sacred charge,
In Whom all spirits live.
- 4 So now beneath his eye
Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast:

- 5 Save that his will be done,
Whate'er betide:
Dead to herself, and dead
In Him to all beside.
- 6 Thus would I live, yet now
Not I, but He,
In all his power and love,
Henceforth alive in me.
- 7 O Blessed Trinity,
One Lord Divine!
Thine may I ever be,
And Thou for ever mine! Amen.

The day expires.

Hymn 190.

44675.

1. The day ex - pires; My soul de - sires And pants... to see that
The day expires And pants day, When whate'er has vexed her here Shall be done a - way. A - men.

- 2 The night is here,
Oh! be Thou near;
Christ, make it light within;
Drive away from out my heart
All the night of sin.
- 3 All things that move
Below, above,
With sleep Thou now hast blest;
Work Thou still in me while I Calmly in Thee rest.
- 4 When shall the sway
Of night and day
Give o'er to rule man thus?
When that brightest day of days
Once shall dawn on us.

- 5 Ah! never then
Her light again
My joyous soul shall miss,
For the Lamb shall be my light,
Filling me with bliss.
- 6 Oh! were I there!
Where all the air
With lovely sounds doth ring,
And with thy saints, my dearest Lord,
Evermore may sing.
- 7 Lord Jesus, Thou
My rest art now;
Oh, help me that I come
Radiant with thy light to shine
In thy glorious home! Amen.

Now God be with us.

Hymn 191.

II II II 5.

i. Now God be with us, for the night is clos - ing, The light and darkness are of his dis - pos - ing; And 'neath his shad - ow here to rest we yield us, For He will shield us. A - men.

- 2 Let evil thoughts and spirits flee before us ;
Till morning cometh, watch, O Father, o'er us ;
In soul and body Thou from harm defend us,
Thine angels send us.
- 3 Let pious thoughts be ours when sleep o'ertakes us ;
Our earliest thoughts be thine when morning wakes us :
All sick and mourners we to Thee commend them,
Do Thou befriend them.
- 4 We have no refuge ; none on earth to aid us
But Thee, O Father, Who thine own hast made us :
Keep us in life ; forgive our sins ; deliver
Us now and ever.
- 5 Praise be to Thee through Jesus our salvation,
God, Three in One, the Ruler of creation,
High throned, o'er all thine eye of mercy casting,
Lord everlasting. Amen.

Crown Him with many crowns.

Hymn 197.

S. M. Double.

1. Crown Him with man - y crowns, The Lamb up - on his throne ; Hark, how the heaven-ly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own ;

With his most pre-cious Blood From sin He set us free : We hail Him as our matchless King Through all eter - ni - ty. A - men.

2 Crown Him, the Virgin's Son,
The God Incarnate born,
Whose arm those crimson trophies won,
Which now his Brow adorn :
Fruit of the mystic Rose,
As of that Rose the Stem ;
The Root whence mercy ever flows,
The Babe of Bethlehem.

3 Crown Him, the Lord of Love :
Behold his Hands and Side,
Rich Wounds, yet visible above
In beauty glorified :

No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye
At mysteries so bright.

4 Crown Him the Lord of Peace :
Whose power a sceptre sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
And all be prayer and praise :
His reign shall know no end,
And round his piercèd Feet
Fair flowers of Paradise extend
Their fragrance ever sweet.

Occasional Hymus.

5 Crown Him the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
Ineffably sublime;
Glassed in a sea of light,
Whose everlasting waves
Reflect his Form,—the Infinite—
Who lives, and loves, and saves.

6 Crown Him the Lord of heaven,
One with the Father known,
One with the Spirit through Him given
From yonder glorious throne!
To Thee be endless praise,
For Thou for us hast died;
Be Thou, O Lord, through endless days,
Adored and magnified. Amen.

Thou, whose Almighty Word.

Hymn 198.

2 Thou, Who didst come to bring
On thy redeeming wing
Healing and sight;—
Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inly blind,
Oh, now to all mankind,
Let there be light!

3 Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving, holy Dove,
Speed forth thy flight;
Move on the waters' face,

Spreading the beams of grace,
And in earth's darkest place
Let there be light!

4 Blessed and Holy Three,
Glorious Trinity,
Grace, Love, and Might
Boundless as ocean's tide,
Rolling in fullest pride,
Through the world, far and wide,
Let there be light!

What God does, is done aright.

Hymn 199.

7s. Double.

1. What God does, is done a - right : So his faith - ful chil - dren deem.

Though our har - vest store be light, Rich - ly flows his mer - cy's stream :

When we suf - fer want or woe On this changeful earth be - low, He would draw our faltering love Up to changeless joys a - bove. A - men, A - men.

2 What God does, is done aright :
Question not his sovereign will ;
Though He send the withering blight,
Ere the crop our garner's fill :
Earthly goods He takes away,
That our hope on Him may stay ;
That our weary hearts may be
Blest in Him eternally.

3 What God does, is done aright :
Though our dales and uplands mourn,
We will praise his love and might,
To the future hopeful turn :
He has made us sons of God ;
Christ for us life's path has trod ;
His eternal Word can give Strength whereby our souls can live.

Occasional Hymns.

4 What God does, is done aright:
 This shall be our trust, although
 Here we find no Canaan bright,
 Here no milk or honey flow.
 God, Who doth the ravens feed,
 Shall supply our daily need;
 For his promise standeth sure,
 And his mercies aye endure.

5 What God does, is done aright:
 This glad faith shall cheer our way,
 Till all faith be lost in sight
 In heaven's never-ending day:
 When to Thee, Great Three in One,
 God the Father, God the Son,
 God the Spirit, we shall pour
 Thanks and praise for evermore.
Amen, Amen.

Rejoice, ye pure in heart.

Hymn 200.

S. M.

1. Re - joice, ye pure in heart! Re - joice, give thanks, and sing! Your glo-rious ban-ner wave on high, The Cross of Christ your King! A - men.

2 Yes! onward, onward still,
 With hymn, and chant, and song,
 Thro' gate, and porch, and columned aisle,
 The hallowed pathways throng.

5 Yes! on through life's long path;
 Still chanting as ye go!
 From youth to age, by night and day,
 In gladness and in woe.

3 Your clear hosannas raise
 And Alleluias loud!
 Whilst answering echoes upward float
 Like wreaths of incense-cloud!

6 Still lift your standard high!
 Still march in firm array!
 As warriors through the darkness toil
 Till dawns the golden day.

4 With voices full and strong,
 As ocean's surging praise,
 Lead forth the hymns our fathers loved,
 The psalms of ancient days!

7 At last the march shall end,
 The wearied ones shall rest;
 The pilgrims find their father's house,
 Jerusalem the blest.

8 Then on! ye pure in heart,
 Rejoice, give thanks, and sing!
 Your glorious banner wave on high,
 The Cross of Christ your King! Amen.

Oft in danger, oft in woe.

Hymn 201.

7s.

1. Oft in dan-ger, oft in woe, On-ward, Christians, on-ward go;

Bear the toil, maintain the strife, Strengthen'd with the Bread of Life. A - men.

- 2 Let not sorrow dim your eye,
 Soon shall every tear be dry;
 Let not fear your course impede,
 Great your strength, if great your need.
- 3 Let your drooping hearts be glad;
 March in heavenly armor clad;
 Fight, nor think the battle long,
 Soon shall vict'ry wake your song.

- 4 Firm in faith, and strong by love,
 More than conquerors ye shall prove;
 Though opposed by many a foe,
 Christian soldiers, onward go!
- 5 Lord of might and majesty,
 Grant to us the victory;
 Holy Father, Holy Son,
 Holy Spirit: Three in One! Amen.

Leave all to God.

Hymn 203.

4 77774.

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are: "1. Leave all to God! Weep-ing one, and still thy tears, For the High-est knows thy pain, Sees thy sufferings and thy fears: He can noth-ing do in vain, Leave all to God! A - - men." The score includes dynamic markings such as rit. pp and repeat signs.

2 Be still and trust!
For his strokes are strokes of love,
Thou must for thy profit bear;
He thy faithful love would prove;
Trust thy Father's loving care,
Be still and trust!

3 Know, God is near!
Though thou think Him far away,
Though his mercy long have slept,
He will come and not delay,
When his child enough hath wept—
O then, how near!

4 O teach Him not
When and how to hear thy prayers;
Never doth our God forget,
He the cross who longest bears
Sooner by his Lord is met—
Then teach Him not!

5 O love Him well!
Never doubting, never tired
Of his will or of his ways,
When thou hast with Jesus suffered,
Thou hast learned to share his praise.
O love Him well! Amen.

Lead, kindly Light.

Hymn 204.

IO 4s. IO IO.

1. Lead, kind-ly Light, a - mid th' encirc-ling gloom, Lead Thou me on: The night is dark, and I am far from home, Lead

Thou me on. Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see

The dis-tant scene; one step e-nough for me. A - men.

2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on.
I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will; remember not past years.

Occasional Hymns.

3 So long thy power hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone,
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile. Amen.

SECOND TUNE.

i. Lead, kind-ly Light, a - mid th'en-circ-ling gloom, Lead Thou me

Thou me on. Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see

Go forth, my soul.

Hymn 205.

886 8886.

1. Go forth, my soul, and seek de - light In all the gifts of God's great might These pleas-ant sum-mer hours; Look how the plains for thee and me Have deck'd themselves most fair to see, Have deck'd themselves most fair to see, All bright and sweet with flowers. A - men.

2 Thy mighty workings, mighty God,
Wakes all my powers: I look abroad
And can no longer rest;
I too must sing when all things sing,
And from my heart the praises ring,
And from my heart the praises ring,
The Highest loveth best.

3 I think, Art thou so good to us,
And scatterest joy and beauty thus
O'er this poor earth of ours;
What nobler glories shall be given
Hereafter in thy shining heaven,
Hereafter in thy shining heaven,
Set round with golden towers?

Occasional Hymns.

4 O were I there! O that I now,
 Dear God, before thy throne could bow,
 And bear my heavenly palm!
 Then like the angels I would raise
 My voice and sing thy endless praise,
 My voice and sing thy endless praise
 In many a sweet-toned psalm.

5 On me send down thy heavenly showers,
 Revise and bless my fainting powers,
 And let me thrive and grow
 Beneath the summer of thy grace,
 And fruits of faith bud forth apace,
 And fruits of faith bud forth apace,
 While yet I dwell below.

Then set me, Lord, in Paradise,
 When I have bloomed beneath these skies,
 Till my last leaf is flown;
 Thus let me serve Thee here in time,
 And after in that happier clime,
 And after in that happier clime,
 And Thee, my God, alone! Amen.

2 Ridge of the mountain-wave,
 Lower thy crest!
 Wail of the tempest-wind

3 Jesu, Deliverer,

 Soothe Thou our voyaging
 Over life's sea:
 Thou, when the storm of death
 Roars, sweeping by,
 Whisper, Thou Truth of Truth,
 “Peace! It is I!” Amen.

Not ours to ask Thee, "What is truth?"

(HYMN FOR THE SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE.)

Hymn 207.

8s. 88.

i. Not ours to ask Thee, "What is truth?" For here it shines, the Light of light; And all may see it, age or youth, Who

Let faith, so precious, feed and grow;
And make our lives the more accord
With fear and love, the more we know.
For thus, too, shall we point the way
That "brightens to the perfect day."
- 3 Nor have we learned it save to teach;
It is for others we are wise;
The humblest has a charge to preach
Thy kingdom in a nation's eyes:
A nation groping for the way
That "brightens to the perfect day."

Apostle of the West, to thee
We boldly come and fondly call,

2 The cords that bound my heart to earth
Are broken by his hand:

My soul a captive led.

4 My heart is with Him on his throne,
And ill can brook delay;

"Rise up, and come away!"

That which no measure knows;
Would search the mystery of thy Love,

Thou knowest, Lord.

Hymn 217.

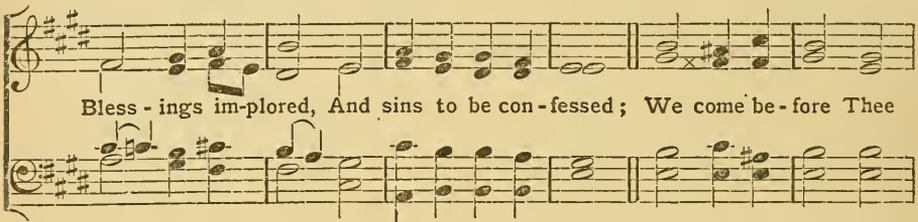

II 108. 10 10.

1. Thou knowest, Lord, the wea-ri-ness and sor - row Of the sad heart that comes to Thee for rest; Cares of to-day, and burdens for to-mor-row,

Bless - ings im-plored, And sins to be con-fessed; We come be-fore Thee

2 Thou knowest all the past: how long and blindly
On the dark mountains the lost wanderer strayed;
How the good Shepherd followed, and how kindly
He bore it home, upon his Shoulders laid;
And healed the bleeding wounds, and soothed the pain,
And brought back life, and hope, and strength again.

3 Thou knowest all the present; each temptation,
Each toilsome duty, each foreboding fear;
All to each one assigned of tribulation,
Or to belovèd ones, than self more dear;
All pensive memories, as we journey on,
Longings for vanished smiles and voices gone.

Occasional Hymns.

 As Man, our mortal weakness Thou hast proved ;

 And find a hiding-place, a rest, a home. Amen.

2 Sure never till my latest breath,
 Can I forget that look!
 It seemed to charge me with his death,
 Though not a word He spoke:
 My conscience felt and owned the guilt,
 And plunged me in despair;
 I saw my sins his Blood had spilt,
 And help to nail Him there.

3 Alas! I knew not what I did!
 But now my tears are vain;
 Where shall my trembling soul be hid?
 For I the Lord have slain!

A second look He gave, which said,
 "I freely all forgive:
 This Blood is for thy ransom paid,
 I die, that thou mayst live."

4 Thus while his death my sin displays
 In all its blackest hue,
 Such is the mystery of grace,
 It seals my pardon too.
 With pleasing grief, and mournful joy,
 My spirit now is filled,
 That I should such a Life destroy,
 Yet live by Him I killed. Amen.

I met the Good Shepherd.

65s. Double.

1. I met the Good Shepherd But now on the plain, As homeward He car-ried His lost one a - gain ; I marvelled how gently His bur-den He bore ; And as He passed by me I knelt to a - dore. A - men.

2 "O Shepherd, Good Shepherd !
 Thy wounds they are deep ;
 The wolves have sore hurt Thee,
 In helping thy sheep ;
 Thy raiment all over
 With crimson is dyed ;
 And what is this rent
 They have made in thy side ?

3 "Ah me ! how the thorns
 Have entangled thy hair ;
 And cruelly riven
 That forehead so fair !
 How feebly Thou drawest
 Thy faltering breath !
 And lo ! on thy face
 Is the shadow of death !

4 "O Shepherd, Good Shepherd !
 And is it for me
 This grievous affliction
 Has fallen on Thee ?
 Ah ! then, let me strive,
 For the love Thou hast borne,
 To give Thee no longer
 Occasion to mourn." Amen.

Wouldst thou inherit life with Christ.

2 O think what sorrows Christ Himself has known!
The scorn and anguish sore,
The bitter death He bore,
Ere He ascended to his heavenly throne;
And deemest thou, thou canst with right complain
Whate'er thy pain?

3 Not e'en the sharpest sorrows we can feel,
Nor keenest pangs, we dare
With that great bliss compare,
When God his glory shall in us reveal,
That shall endure when our brief woes are o'er,
For evermore! Amen.

2 When we stand before the throne,
Knowing all as we are known;
When we see Thee as Thou art,
Love Thee with un sinning heart:
Then, Lord, shall we fully know—
Not till then—how much we owe.

3 When the praise of Heaven we hear,
Loud as thunders to the ear,
Loud as many waters' noise,
Sweet as harp's melodious voice:
Then, Lord, shall we fully know—
Not till then—how much we owe.

4 Chosen, Jesu, by thy love,
Heirs with Thee of joys above;
Hidden in thy wounded Side,
By thy Spirit sanctified:
Teach us, Lord, on earth to show
By our lives, how much we owe. Amen.

Where the new song sweetly swelleth,
And no discord ever comes :
Where the Saints the world disdaining
Now with Christ are ever reigning,
That must be the Home of homes.

4 Where the Lamb on high is seated,
By ten thousand voices greeted :
Lord of lords, and King of kings.
Son of man, they crown, they crown Him ;
Son of God, they own, they own Him ;
With his Name the palace rings.

5 Blessing, honor, without measure,
Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,
Lay we at his blessed feet ;
Poor the praise that now we render,
Loud shall be our voices yonder,
When before his Throne we meet.

Thou'rt present, Lord, in every place;
And, wheresoe'er my lot may be,
Still shall my spirit cleave to Thee,
To Thee, to Thee, my God, to Thee!

To Thee my heart and life I bring;
My only thought henceforth to be
That all I want I find in Thee,
In Thee, in Thee, dear God, in Thee! Amen.

Occasional Hymns.

Then thou hast conquered.

Hymn 234.

C. M. Double.

1. Then thou hast conquered! then, at last, Thy course is run—good night;

Thou art well pleased that it is past, Be - yond the grave, 'tis light.

But ye, dear friends, whom she must leave, Look up, and say fare - well! Why should ye thus la - ment and grieve? With her it stand-eth well. A - men.

2 Henceforth a life of joy she shares
 In her Creator's hand;
 None of the griefs can touch her there,
 That haunt this lower land.
 Far better is a happy death
 Than worldly life I trow;
 The weakness once she sank beneath
She never more shall know.

3 Lay on her coffin many a wreath,
 For conquerors wreath'd are seen;
 And, lo! her soul attains through death
 The crown of evergreen,
 That we should see her grave, alas!
 Shows we are frail indeed;
 That it so soon should come to pass,
 Our Father hath decreed.

Occasional Hymns.

- 4 'Twas but a while that she was sent
 To dwell among us here;
 Now God resumes what He hath lent,
 Oh! grieve not o'er her bier;
 But say, 'twas given at his command—
 Who takes it; He is just:
 Our life and death are in his hand,
 His servants can but trust.
- 5 Tho' dead she speaks, "Dear friends, be Think not too young am I: [still,
 For she who dies, as God doth will,
 Is old enough to die."
 Father! it is a bitter pang
 For frail, weak hearts to bear;
 Forgive us, if we can't return
 Thy loan without a tear.

6 This thought alone our souls shall cheer;
 To us the boon was given,
 Here in a sinful world to rear
 One angel soul for Heaven.
 Ah! when shall that great day be come,
 When these things fade away,
 And Thou shalt bid us welcome home—
 Would God it were to-day!—Amen.

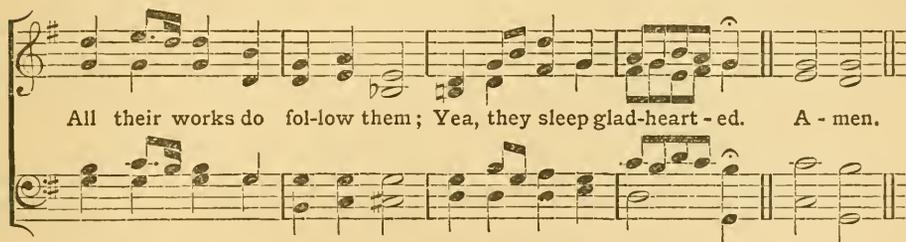

How calm and blest.

Hymn 235.

44776.

1. How calm and blest The dead now rest Who in the Lord de - part - ed;

All their works do fol-low them; Yea, they sleep glad-heart-ed. A - men.

2 Earth's pains are o'er,
 For them no more
 Shall life bring toil and sorrow;
 This poor worldly day is done,
 Now begins the morrow.

3 Oh lead them Thou
 To rest e'en now,
 With all who sorely anguished,
 For the purging of their souls
 Long in woe have languished.

4 Soon grant release,
 That they in peace
 May see their Heavenly morning;
 Grant indulgence, kindest Lord,
 They for Thee are yearning! Amen.

Occasional Hymns.

Now the toils of life are past.

Hymn 236.

7s. Six lines.

1. Now the toils of life are past ; Calm and peace have come at last ;

Now thro' death's e - ly - sian door, All thy pains and la - bors o'er, Thou shalt go to join the blest In the realms of endless rest. A - men.

2 Rest from toil and carking care ;
Rest from earthly wear and tear ;
Rest from ever present sin ;
Rest without, and rest within ;
Rest, which no abatement knows ;
Rest, and infinite repose.

3 Lo ! thine Angel Guardian nigh,
Hath receiv'd thy parting sigh ;
See his azure wings expand
T'wards the beatific land !
Now his bosom thee enfolds,
Now aloft his course he holds.

4 " Welcome, empyrean dome !
Welcome, my eternal home !
Welcome, early comrades dear,
First that come to greet me here ;
I have reached the goal at last,
And my sorrows all are past.

5 " Jesu ! who didst die for me
On the Cross of Calvary,
Not in aught that is my own,
But in thy true Blood alone,
Do I put my trembling trust ;
Spare, O spare a worm of dust."

6 Lo ! 'tis o'er ! the sentence said ;
Lift again thy drooping head ;
Hail, eternally forgiven !
Hail, immortal child of Heaven !
He who did for thee atone
Now receives thee as his own.

7 Now shall flesh its Maker see ;
Now shall man a seraph be,
Keeping endless jubilee
In immortal liberty !
Lost in pure filicity !
Lost in depths of Deity ! Amen.

I will not let Thee go.

Hymn 237.

12 4 4 10 6 6 10 6.

1. I will not let Thee go, Thou Help in time of need! Heap ill on ill, I trust Thee still, E'en when it seems as Thou wouldst slay indeed.

Do as Thou wilt with me, I yet will cling to Thee; Hide Thou thy face, yet Help in time of need, I will not let Thee go! A-men.

2 I will not let Thee go; should I forsake my bliss?
 No Lord, Thou'rt mine,
 And I am thine,
 Thee will I hold when all things else I miss.
 Though dark and sad the night,
 Joy cometh with thy light,
 O Thou, my Sun: should I forsake my bliss?
 I will not let Thee go!

3 I will not let Thee go, my God, my Life, my Lord!
 Not death can tear
 Me from his care,
 Who for my sake his Soul in death outpoured.
 Thou diedst for love to me,
 I say in love to Thee,
 My heart may break, my God, my Life, my Lord,
 I will not let Thee go. Amen.

Occasional Hymns.

Go, and dig my grave to-day.

Hymn 238.

7s. Six lines.

1. Go, and dig my grave to - day! Wea - ry are my wanderings all,

Now from earth I pass a - way, For the heavenly peace doth call;

An - gel voi - ces from a - bove Call me to their rest and love;

An - gel voi - ces from a - bove Call me to their rest and love. A - men.

2 Go, and dig my grave to-day!
Homeward doth my journey tend;
And I lay my staff away
Here where all things earthly end;
And I lay my weary head
On the only painless bed.

3 Farewell, earth, then; I am glad
That in peace I now depart,
For thy very joys are sad,
And thy hopes deceive the heart.
Fleeting is thy beauty's gleam,
False and changing as a dream.

4 Farewell, O ye much-loved friends!
Grief hath smote you as a sword,
But the Comforter descends
Unto them who love the Lord.
Weep not o'er a passing show,
To th' eternal world I go.

5 Weep not, my Redeemer lives:
Heavenward springing from the dust,
Clear-eyed Hope her comfort gives;
Faith, Heaven's champion, bids us
Love eternal whispers nigh, [trust;
"Child of God, fear not to die!" Amen.

The Vesper Psalms.

The Chants.

They are nine in number. The ninth is used only for the Psalm In exitu Israel. The others are used according to the Tone in which the Antiphon, which precedes and follows it, is written. Each Psalm chant is composed of two divisions. The first division, sung to the first half of each verse, contains: 1st. The Intonation (used only for the first verse, the Gloria Patri, and all of the Magnificat); 2d. The First Recitative; 3d. The Mediation. The second division, sung to the second half of each verse, contains: 1st. The Second Recitative; 2d. The Termination.

The melody of the first division of each Psalm Tone does not change. Neither is there any change in the second divisions of the Second, Fifth, Sixth, or Ninth Tones. But for their second divisions the First Tone has five terminations, the Third four, the Fourth three, the Seventh five, and the Eighth Tone two.

The Intonation consists of two or three notes. If of three the second is a double note; thus, , which is always joined to the third, and slurred to it in singing, . If there are two syllables to be sung to these slurred notes (as, -fité in confitébor, -mine in Domine, -didi in Crédidi) both of these syllables are sung to the double note, and slurred to the single note. This same rule will apply to the double note joined to a single note wherever it occurs in the Mediations and Terminations.

The Part called Recitative, designated by a long note thus, , is one tone, on which is chanted one or more words of the divisions of each verse up to the italicized syllable, as found in the text.

There are three exceptions to this rule. A small preparatory note will be found in the same bar with the Long () in the first division of the First and Ninth Tones, and in the second division of the Fourth Tone. The last syllable coming before the italicized syllable is to be sung to this little preparatory note.

The Mediations and Terminations are all made up each of four sections, corresponding exactly with the four syllabic sections found marked off in every verse of the Psalms.

Of these four sections it will be remarked that the 1st and 3d, whether of one or more notes, never have but one syllable sung to them, and it is always an accented syllable. The 2d and 4th sections may be of one or more notes. If one note it is a double . If more, the first one is a double, upon which all the syllables of that section are to be sung before being slurred to the following single notes.

Two examples of words not following the general rule will be found printed, as examples, to the chant of the Eighth Tone. The exception is as follows: if the syllable at the end of the Mediation of the Second, Fourth, Fifth, and Eighth Tones be a word of one syllable, as est, sum, me, da, nos, etc.; or if the word be a Hebrew proper name, as David, Israel, Sion, Ephrata, Ægypto, Jerusalem, etc., the word of one syllable, or the last syllable of the Hebrew word is to be sung to the note of the 3d section, and the note of the 4th is omitted altogether.

13. Confitébor tibi, V quia terribíliter ma - gní - ca - tus es : || mirabilia ópera tua, V et ánima mea cognós - cit ni - mis.

14. Non est occultátum os meum a te, V quod fecisti in oc - cúl - to : || et substán - tia mea V in inferió - ribus ter - ræ.

15. Imperféctum meum vidérunt óculi tui ; V et in libro tuo óm - nes - cri - bén - tur : || dies formabúntur, V et ne - mo - in e - is.

1. O Lord, Thou hast searched me, and known me : Thou knowest my down-sit - ting and mine up-rising ;

2. Thou hast understood my thoughts afar off : my path and my line Thou hast searched out.

3. And art acquainted with all my ways : before there is a word on my tongue.

4. Lo, O Lord, Thou knowest all things both new and old : Thou hast made me, and laid thine hand upon me.

5. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me : it is high, and I cannot attain unto it.

6. Whither shall I go from thy Spirit ? or whither shall I flee from thy presence.

7. If I ascend up into heaven, Thou art there : if I go down into hell, Thou art there.

8. If I take to me the wings of the morning : and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea :

9. Even there also shall thy hand lead me : and thy right hand shall hold me.

10. If I say : Surely the darkness shall cover me : even the night shall be light about me in my pleasures.

11. But darkness shall not be dark to Thee, and night shall be light as the day : the darkness thereof, and the light thereof, are alike to Thee.

12. For Thou hast possessed my reins : Thou hast protected me from my mother's womb.

13. I will praise Thee, for thy greatness is terrible : marvellous are thy works : and that my soul knoweth right well.

14. My bones were not hid from Thee, when Thou madest me in secret : nor my substance in the lower parts of the earth.

15. Thy eyes did see my imperfect being, and in thy book shall all be written : days shall be formed, when as yet there was none of them.

16. Mihi autem nimis honorificāti sunt V amici tu - i De - us : || nimis confortātus est V principa - tus - e - rum.

17. Dinūmerabo eos, V et super arēnam mul̄i - plica - bŭn - tur : || exurrēxi, V et adhuc sum te - cum.

18. Si occideris, Deus, pec - ca - tō - res : || viri sāguinum, V declina - te a me.

19. Quia dicitis in cogita - ti - ō - ne : || Accipient in vanitāte civita - tes tu - as.

20. Nonne qui odērunt te, Do - mine ō - deram : || et super inimīcos tuos tu - bes - cē - bam ?

21. Perfēcto ódio ó - deram il - los : || et inimīci fac - ti - sunt mi - hi.

22. Proba me, Deus, V et sci - to - cor me - um : || intēroga me, V et cognósce sé - mitas me - as.

23. Et vide V si via iniquita - tis in me est : || et deduc me in vi - a - æ - ter - na.

Glória Pa - tri - et Fi - lio : || et Spiri - tui San - cto.

Sicut erat in principio, V et nunc, et sem - per : || et in sæcula sæculō - rum. A - men.

16. But to me thy friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable: their principality is exceedingly strengthened.

17. If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: I arose, and am still with Thee.

18. Surely Thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: ye men of blood, depart from me:

19. For ye say in thought: In vain shall thy people take thy cities.

20. Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate Thee? and am not I grieved at those that rise up against Thee.

21. I hate them with a perfect hatred: they are to me as enemies.

22. Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts.

23. And see if there be any wicked way in me: and lead me in the way everlasting.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

2. How he sware unto the Lord: he vowed a vow unto the God of Jacob;

3. Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house: nor go up into my bed.

4. I will not give sleep to mine eyes: or slumber to mine eyelids.

5. I will not give the temples of my head any rest, until I find out a place for the Lord: an habitation for the God of Jacob.

6. Behold we have heard of it in Ephrata: we have found it in the fields of the wood.

7. We will go into his tabernacle: we will adore in the place where his feet stood.

8. Arise, O Lord, unto thy resting place : Thou, and the ark which Thou hast sanctified.

9. Let thy priests be clothed with justice : and let thy saints rejoice.

10. For thy servant David's sake : turn not away the face of thy anointed.

11. The Lord hath sworn truth to David, and He will not make it void : Of the fruit of thy womb I will set upon thy throne.

12. If my children will keep my covenant ; and these my testimonies which I shall teach them :

13. Their children also for evermore : shall sit upon thy throne.

14. For the Lord hath chosen Sion : He hath chosen it for his habitation.

15. This is my rest for ever and ever : here will I dwell, for I have chosen it.

16. Blessing I will bless her widow : I will satisfy her poor with bread.

17. I will clothe her priests with salvation : and her saints shall rejoice with exceeding great joy.

18. There will I bring forth a horn to David : I have prepared a lamp for my anointed.

19. His enemies I will clothe with confusion : but upon him shall my sanctification flourish.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

SHORT LESSON. I St. Peter v. 8.

Fratres, sóbrii estóte, et vigiláte : quia adversárius vester diábulus tanquam leo rúgiens circuit, quærens quem dévoret :
cui resistite fortes in fide. Tu autem,
Dómine, miserére nobis.
R. Deo grátias.

Brethren, be sober, and watch : because your adversary, the devil, as a roaring lion goeth about, seeking whom he may devour ; whom resist ye strong in faith.
But Thou, O Lord, have mercy on us.
R. Thanks be to God.

Ÿ. Adjutorium nostrum in nomine Do - mini.
R. Qui fecit cælum et ter - - - ram.
Ÿ. Our help is in the name of the Lord.
R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Pater noster (Our Father), etc., in silence.

Then the Priest makes the Confession :

Confíteor Deo omnipoténti, beátæ Mariæ semper Vírgini, beáto Michaéli Archángelo, beáto Joánni Baptistæ, sanctis Apóstolis Petro et Paulo, ómnibus Sanctis, et vóbis, fratres : quia peccávi nimis cogitatíone, verbo, et ópere : mea culpa, mea culpa, mea máxima culpa. Ideo precor beátam Mariam semper Vírginem, beátum
Michaélem Archángelum, beátum Joán-

I confess to Almighty God, to blessed
Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, to all the Saints, and to you, brethren :
that I have sinned exceedingly in thought,
word, and deed : through my fault, through my fault, through my grievous fault.
Therefore I beseech the blessed Mary nem Baptistam, sanctos Apóstolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes Sanctos, et vos fratres, oráre pro me ad Dóminum Deum nostrum.

ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, all the Saints, and you, brethren, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

The Choir answers :

Misereátur tui omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccátis tuis, perdúcat te ad vitam ætérnam.

R. Amen.

Almighty God, have mercy upon thee, forgive thee thy sins, and bring thee to life everlasting.

R. Amen.

Then the Choir repeats the Confession, and instead of the words vobis fratres (to you, brethren), vos fratres (you, brethren), substitutes tibi pater (to you, father), te pater (you, father).

The Priest says :

Misereátur vestri omnipotens Deus, et, dimissis peccátis vestris, perdúcat vos ad vitam ætérnam.

R. Amen.

Indulgéntiam, absolutiónem, et remissionem peccatórum nostrórum tríbuat nobis omnipotens, et miséricors Dóminus.

R. Amen.

Almighty God, have mercy upon you, forgive you your sins, and bring you to life everlasting.

R. Amen.

The almighty and merciful Lord grant us pardon, absolution, and remission of our sins.

R. Amen.

Then is said :

Ÿ. Converte nos Deus sa-lu-ta-ris no-ster.
Ÿ. Convert us, O God our Saviour.

R. Et averte iram tu-am a no-bis.
R. And turn away thine anger from us.

Ÿ. De-us in ad-ju-to-ri-um me-um in-ten-de.
R. Do-mi-ne, ad ad-ju-van-dum me fes-ti-na.
Ÿ. O God, stretch forth to aid me.
R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glória Patri, et Fílio, et Spíritui Sancto.

Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Hymns, etc., at Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Rubrics permit only Latin Hymns to be sung from the beginning of the Exposition of the B. Sacrament to the end of the Psalm, Laudate Dominum, which closes the Benediction Service. But English Hymns may be sung before and after the Exposition. The Tantum Ergo is the only hymn required by the Rubrics, but others may be sung in honor of the B. Sacrament; and it is permitted also to sing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin, and hymns in honor of the Saints or appropriate to the season or festival.
